HERNANDEZ-BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

Encl: (37) COMMAND INFORMATION: MARFORRES CASE #32550

1. I have reviewed the investigation and find it in compliance with references (a)-(c). The findings of fact are approved. Recommendations were not directed or requested.
2. Enclosure (37) determined that the matters raised in Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's Inspector General Hotline Complaint (Enclosure (26)) warranted command attention. Accordingly, I directed the Investigating Officer to expand his investigation to inquire into the grievances alleged by Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, which are inextricably tied to the allegations of misconduct. The investigation adequately addressed Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's Inspector General Complaint and no further investigation is warranted by this command into the complaint.
3. The evidence failed to substantiate Issue #1, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's allegation that his report of sexual assault was not taken seriously by the command and standard procedures were not followed. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that he was sexually assaulted by a civilian, which is outside the jurisdiction of a military criminal law enforcement organization. The command did not have the authority to take investigative, disciplinary, or judicial action against the alleged civilian offender. During the course of the investigation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated that he reported the alleged sexual assault to civilian law enforcement authorities prior to filing an unrestricted report of sexual assault with the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator and Family Advocacy Program. Enclosures (13), (28), (29), and (33). Subsequent to his Inspector General Complaint, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was interviewed by Army CID, Fort Buchanan on 19 March 2021. This interview was referred to civilian law enforcement due to lack of Department of Defense jurisdiction over the matter.
4. The evidence failed to substantiate Issue #2: Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's allegation that on 8 March 2021, his command left him unattended and unconscious on the floor of the Home Training Center (HTC) for a period of 18 hours. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's version of events during and after the meeting is directly contradicted by multiple witnesses. Both the

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C. HERNANDEZ-BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

Inspector-Instructor and Inspector-Instructor First Sergeant searched the HTC spaces and parking lot for Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro after he left the HTC, statements which are consistent and corroborated by the totality of the facts and circumstances, including the note they left for Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro to contact them upon his return. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro had consented to a search of a phone containing incriminating evidence and had a motive to fabricate his mental state at the time of the authorization. Prior to submitting his Inspector General Complaint, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro asked the Inspector-Instructor First Sergeant if the HTC was equipped with security cameras. In light of the totality of the evidence, including his subsequent and demonstrably false exculpatory statements, this allegation is unsubstantiated.

5. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's Inspector General Complaint was forwarded to the Policy and Compliance Section Head for the Marine Corps Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program (SAPR) and the Section Head, Family Advocacy Program (FAP), Marine Liaison - HQMC Prevention and Response, Behavioral Programs. Any additional inquiries regarding deviation from standard procedures should be undertaken by appropriate authorities within the SAPR and FAP programs.

6. The evidence in this case tends to prove that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro posted intimate images of his ex-girlfriend on various social media websites, conduct which, if done while subject to the Uniform Code of Military Justice, would warrant trial by court-martial. The current state of the evidence is not sufficient to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro distributed the images while subject to the Uniform Code of Military Justice. While the evidence demonstrates that it is likely that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro continued to broadcast the images from 22-24 March 2021 while in a drilling status, the Investigating Officer lacked the forensic resources to prove this.

7. The evidence in this case is sufficient to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro violated Article 107, UCMJ on 24 March 2021, in that he made multiple false official statements to the Investigating Officer. In doing so, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro not only violated the Uniform Code of Military Justice, he failed to demonstrate acceptable qualities of leadership and integrity required of a non-commissioned officer and, as a graduate of Officer Candidate School, a Marine Corps Officer Candidate.

8. This Command Investigation has been forwarded to NCIS for review. If NCIS determines that it has jurisdiction to investigate and recommends additional forensic investigation into whether Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro broadcast intimate visual images in violation of Articles 92 and 117a., I intend to withhold disposition action until completion of the NCIS investigation.

9. I have consulted with the Command Legal Advisor and considered the non-binding disposition guidance in Appendix 2.1 of the Manual for Courts-Martial. Absent NCIS investigative activity, I intend to hold Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro accountable via non-judicial and administrative measures. Such measures will include processing for involuntary administrative separation for commission of serious civilian and military offenses.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. I was appointed, pursuant to reference (a), to investigate allegations of suspected misconduct by Corporal Jean Carlos Hernandez-Barreiro 1522399708/0481 USMCR, Detachment 1 Landing Support Company, Combat Logistics Regiment 45. Enclosure (1). In conducting this inquiry, I gathered all reasonably available evidence bearing on guilt or innocence and any evidence relating to aggravation, extenuation, or mitigation.

2. Executive Summary. Corporal Jean Carlos Hernandez-Barreiro was suspected to have violated the following articles of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ): Article 115, Communicating a Threat; Article 92, Failure to Obey an Order; Article 117a, Wrongful Broadcast or Distribution of Intimate Visual Images; and Article 134, Service Discrediting Conduct. During the course of this investigation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro filed an Inspector General (IG) Complaint with the Marine Forces Reserve (MFR) IG Office on 12 March 2021. This complaint was forwarded to the Commanding Officer of Combat Logistics Regiment – 45 on 24 March 2021. Accordingly, the scope of this investigation was expanded to include the grievances alleged by Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro.

a. Alleged Misconduct. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was initially suspected of posting explicit pictures of his ex-girlfriend, Ms. Glimary Negrón-Muñiz on various social media platforms without her consent. This investigation did not uncover direct evidence that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro committed the alleged offenses while in a duty status. However, the social media accounts across the various platforms alleged to have been used by Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro were unable to be reviewed. The data for these platforms are not stored on device hard-drives and thus were not present when Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's personal cell phone hard-drive was examined. Rather, the data is stored on proprietary cloud servers owned and operated by the individual social media companies which the Investigating Officer was unable to access. The Ocala Police Department (Florida) is conducting a similar investigation into the allegations made by Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and is working to subpoena the data from the social media companies. Based on similar cases, the lead detective estimates they will not receive a response for six to eight months. However, while in a drilling status on 24 March 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro did lie to the Investigating Officer after having been read his Article 31b rights. Specifically, evidence found on his personal cell phone hard-drive directly contradicts his false claim that he never received or possessed explicit photographs of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz.

b. Inspector General (IG) Complaint. On 12 March 2021 Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro filed a complaint with the MFR IG Office that centered around two main grievances: (1) That Corporal

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C.

Hernandez-Barreiro's unrestricted report of sexual assault was not handled properly; (2) that a medical episode he suffered during the course of his office visit on March 8th rendered him unable to consciously consent to a search of his phone, and that his condition was completely disregarded by office staff who left him on the floor of the building, unconscious, overnight. In summary, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro felt that his allegations of sexual assault against Ms. Negrón-Muñiz were taken seriously, and that instead, he was being treated as a perpetrator as a result of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz's malicious efforts to sabotage his career.

(1) Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro first made a restricted report of sexual assault on 21 January 2021 to the unit Sexual Assault Prevention and Response – Victim Advocate (SAPR-VA) which was forwarded to the 4th Marine Logistics Group (MLG) Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC), Mr. William Daigle. This report was changed to unrestricted on 15 February 2021 at which time Mr. Daigle learned that the accused perpetrator of the sexual assault was the Marine's ex-girlfriend who he had been living with for several months, which necessitated that his case be forwarded to the MFR Family Advocacy Program (FAP) in accordance with applicable procedures and orders. While resources were provided to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro throughout this transition, neither NCIS nor the victim's chain of command was notified regarding the sexual assault allegations until after the IG Complaint had been filed and incorporated into this investigation.

(2) On 8 March 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro came to the Detachment 1, Landing Support Company (Det1, LS Co) offices to sign a Military Protective Order (MPO) issued by the Commanding Officer of Combat Logistics Regiment – 45. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro then alleges that he was left unattended overnight in the unit offices after clearly exhibiting signs of a panic attack until he was found the following morning unresponsive. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro account differs dramatically from the statements given by Detachment 1 leadership, who saw no indications of medical distress in the Marine, and believed that he had left while waiting for NCIS to complete a search of his phone when they could not locate him anywhere in the building. No other witness statements corroborate Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's account of this incident and his claim of sweating and hyperventilating is inconsistent with the three witnesses in the room. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro claims to have been passed out on the office floor for over 18 hours, however there is no evidence that he soiled himself during this time which would be expected in this case and his car was missing from the parking lot. Furthermore, the Detachment 1 leadership statements are consistent and the fact that First Sergeant Alvarez left a sticky note on the outside of the door with his information, which was used by the army soldier to contact First Sergeant Alvarez, corroborates their version of events – that they searched the building for Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro and when unable to locate him left a note for him to contact First Sergeant Alvarez.

FINDINGS

1. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro is a Marine Reservist assigned to Detachment 1, Landing Support Company (Det 1, LS Co), Combat Logistics Regiment 45 (CLR-45). Pertinent to this investigation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was in a drilling status on 23 January 2021, 6 February 2021 and 22-24 March 2021. Enclosure (3).
2. Ms. Glimary Negrón-Muñiz is the civilian ex-girlfriend of Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro and Ms. Negrón-Muñiz dated for three years from January 2018 to December 2020. Enclosures (4, 11, 12).
3. The relationship between Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro and Ms. Negrón-Muñiz was primarily long-distance in nature. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz primarily resided in Florida and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro primarily resided in Puerto Rico. The two would spend holidays and summer break periods with each other. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro lived together in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico from July to December 2020. Enclosures (11, 12, 13).
4. During their relationship, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz participated in the Det 1, LS Company, CLR-45 2019 and 2020 Toys for Tots programs. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz assisted in warehouse operations, toy deliveries, and communication outreach support, coordinating social media efforts and local radio and news interviews. During this time she worked closely with SSgt Melendez (Unit Toys for Tots Program Coordinator), SSgt Millan, and Sgt Castro-Salazar. She claims that her involvement was curtailed in 2020 because Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro did not want her to participate if he could not be physically present with her. Enclosures (11, 12, 21, 22).
5. There are a few key points of tension that characterize the relationship between Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. First, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz desired more intimacy in their relationship, and was often frustrated by his resistance when they lived together. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated that due to Ms. Negrón-Muñiz's questioning about intimacy and her insistence on increasing the amount of sexual intercourse they have together, he felt pressured by her to engage in sexual activity that made him uncomfortable. Given Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's resistance, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz stated that she would never initiate sexual intercourse during their relationship, leaving it up to him to signal when he was willing to engage sexually. Both Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro agree that this was subject of several arguments during the course of their relationship. Enclosures (11, 12).

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C.
HERNANDEZ BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

6. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz also claims that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro displayed bouts of extreme anger, and increasingly controlling behavior as their relationship progressed. She claims these troubling behaviors intensified after he returned from OCS in 2019. Enclosures (11, 12).

7. On 31 December 2020, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz ended the relationship with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro over the phone after departing their shared residence. During the course of the break-up conversation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged to Ms. Negrón-Muñiz that he had been previously sexually assaulted by a female in 2018 after a night of heavy drinking, but had not reported the incident to any authorities. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz claims that he also attributed the lack of intimacy in their own relationship to this prior trauma. Enclosures (11, 12).

8. On 1 January 2021, after having ended the relationship with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz departed Puerto Rico to her previous residence in Ocala, Florida. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro remained in Puerto Rico. Enclosures (11, 12).

9. From 2-19 January 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro continued to communicate via email, text, WhatsApp, and phone calls. While Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro kept pushing for further discussion in hopes of reconciliation, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz grew increasingly resolute in ending their relationship and cutting off all communication. Enclosures (11, 12, 15).

10. On 20 January 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro spoke on the phone. The conversation was recorded by Ms. Negrón-Muñiz with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's consent. During this conversation, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz clearly explained to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro that she did not wish to continue their relationship in any capacity and that she did not want him contacting her in the future. Enclosures (11, 12).

11. On 21 January 2021 Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro made a restricted report of sexual assault to his unit Sexual Assault Prevention and Response – Victim Advocate (SAPR-VA), Sergeant Juan R. CastroSalazar. The restricted report of sexual assault was forwarded by the unit SAPR-VA to the 4th MLG Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC), Mr. William Daigle. Enclosures (12, 23, 27).

12. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz was aware of the exact date of the restricted report on 21 January 2021 and seems to interpret this as his attempt to seek help and heal, in an effort to resolve an underlying issue that lead to their break-up. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro admitted to informing Ms. Negrón-Muñiz that he made a restricted report with the intention of seeking help. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 11, 13).

13. On 23 January 2021 and in a drilling status, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro checked himself into the hospital stating that he did not feel comfortable being by himself due to his mental state at the time. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro remained in the hospital for two days. Enclosure (13).

14. Ms. Negrón stated that she learned that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had reported his sexual assault to his command and was later admitted to a psychiatric hospital in Cabo Rojo, PR. She said she was contacted by his mother after his mother received a call from the hospital. She further states that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had sent her an email saying that he had been prescribed anti-depressants. She said she was “happy that he was getting the help he needed from professionals.” Enclosures (4, 9).

15. On 24 January 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz stated that she received a cryptic email from Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's and interpreted it as a “suicide note”. She contacted his mother and brother and the three of them contacted Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro to ensure his safety. She also said this was the only time she “responded” to him (after the 20 January 2021 phone call) in order to urge him not to harm himself. Enclosures (4, 11, 12).

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C.

16. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz states that from 25-31 January 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro continued to contact her via different email accounts he created, at times seeking to reconcile their relationship and then in separate messages expressing anger at her for ending their relationship. He also began to explicitly accuse her of harassment and sexual assault during their own relationship, because she pressured him into having unwanted sexual intercourse. While Ms. Negrón-Muñiz provided screen shots of these conversations in her injunction petition, the lack of date stamps make it difficult to place much of the referenced correspondence into a definitive timeline. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 11).

17. On 1 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a security message email stating that her private snapchat account was logged into from Mayaguez, Puerto Rico and the primary email address associated with that account was changed to “wannabepicassoo@gmail.com.” Ms. Negrón-Muñiz did not discover that this had happened until 7 February 2021 because she had turned off email notifications on her cellphone due to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro persistent messaging. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz stated that she had shared all email and social media account passwords with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro during their relationship. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 11).

18. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was living in an apartment by himself in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico during this period. Enclosure (12).

19. On 6 February 2021 and in a drilling status, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro sent an Instagram message to Ms. Negrón-Muñiz from his known account named “jankeelol”. In this message Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated that “I am doing a lot of questionable things rn. Hopefully it is not too late and we can make amends”. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 11).

20. On 13 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz's friend was sent an Instagram “follow” request by an unknown account. The profile photo was an explicit image Ms. Negrón-Muñiz that she stated had only been shared with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and her friend then discovered multiple other Instagram accounts featuring more explicit images that had been shared with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro during the course of their relationship. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 11).

21. On 14 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received messages from a new Instagram account featuring an explicit photo of herself from a profile named “valentine.day.gift”. The message stated “Happy Valentines Day! Genuinely hope you get to be happy in such a special occasion. Rapist, cheaters, backstabbers and liars also deserve to be happy happy day to youu” and “good things coming your way”. Enclosure (4).

22. On 14 February 2021, a friend of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz also received a video showing an OnlyFans.com account and a “Tinder” (dating) account in her name, along with multiple explicit images of her that she also claims to have only shared with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. The video also included a count-down for 8 hours, indicating more explicit images would be shared publicly. Enclosures (4, 11).

23. On 14 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz contacted First Sergeant Alvarez and Captain Jennifer Norena, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's Officer Selection Officer, asking for assistance to stop Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro from taking any actions against her and that she was scared that he may harm himself. Both First Sergeant Alvarez and Captain Norena advised her to also contact the local civilian authorities if she was scared for her safety and since Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was not in a duty status. At this time Captain Norena also informed Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's acting platoon commander of the conversation with Ms. Negrón-Muñiz (While Captain Norena noted that these conversations occurred on 13 February in her interview, it is more likely that they occurred on 14 February, which is consistent with the notes kept by First Sergeant Alvarez and the statement from Ms. Negrón-Muñiz). Enclosures (18, 24).

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C.

24. On 14 February 2021, after being contacted by both Ms. Negrón-Muñiz and Captain Jennifer Norena, First Sergeant Alvarez contacted Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro who stated that he was not planning to take action against Ms. Negrón-Muñiz or do harm to himself. First Sergeant Alvarez advised Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro not to contact Ms. Negrón-Muñiz or take any action at all directed towards her. He then followed up with Ms. Negrón-Muñiz to assure her that he had spoken with Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. First Sergeant Alvarez again told her that since Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was not in a duty status, there was little he could do and that if she felt she was still in danger to contact the local authorities. Enclosures (18, 24).

25. On 15 February 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro contacted Mr. William Daigle stating that he wanted to change his previous restricted report of sexual assault to unrestricted. Enclosures (13, 26, 28, 29).

26. On 15 February 2021, Mr. Daigle forwarded Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's case to Mrs. Jennifer Duhon of the Marine Forces Reserve Family Advocacy Program (FAP) Office upon learning that the accused, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz, was an intimate partner. Mrs. Duhon then forwarded the case information to Ms. Michelle Thomson of the Marine Corps Base Quantico FAP office, the office responsible for handling reserve cases. There is no indication that NCIS was contacted when the report became unrestricted. Enclosure (29).

27. On or about 16 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz submitted a Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence against Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro to the Circuit Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit in and for Marion County Florida. On the same day, the Circuit Court issued an Amended Temporary Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence. Enclosures (4, 5).

28. On 19 February 2021, Ms. Emily Switzer, Substance Abuse Specialist, Marine Corps Community Services reported to the Command Legal Advisor, 4th Marine Logistics Group that she had been contacted by Ms. Negrón-Muñiz, who alleged that a Marine had posted sexually explicit photos of her without her consent and committed other forms of cyber bullying/harassment.

29. On 22 February 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz contacted the Command Legal Advisor, reported the alleged offenses, and requested a Military Protective Order. The Command Legal Advisor in turn notified the Combat Logistics Regiment 45 Commanding Officer.

30. On 22 February 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro learned for the first time that a temporary injunction was filed when state police in Mayaguez served him the Marion County Florida Circuit Court notice of a hearing on 1 March 2021 to consider whether the Court should issue a final judgment of injunction. Enclosures (4, 5, 6, 13).

31. On 24 February 2021, the Investigating Officer was appointed and began investigating this matter. Enclosure (1).

35. On 8 March 2021, First Sergeant Alvarez contacted Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro in order to have him sign the MPO and execute the search and seizure of his phone. Also in the room was First Sergeant Alvarez and Agent Julia Loyd of the Army Criminal Investigation Division (CID), Puerto Rico Field Office. After the MPO was read, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro voluntarily signed the MPO. Enclosures (13, 17, 19).

37. On 8 March 2021, after the MPO was signed, Captain Kelley asked if Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro would be willing to submit his personal cell phone to a search. Sergeant Alvarez then went to his office to scan and email copies of the signed MPO and consent to search and seizure to the Combat Logistics Regiment-45 Inspector-Instructor and the Command Legal Advisor. Enclosures (17, 19).

39. At approximately 1730, First Sergeant Alvarez noticed that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was no longer sitting in the operations office and could not locate him in any of the Marine offices. The two Marines checked all offices, heads, gym, shared hallways, and all other areas of the building. The two noticed that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's car was no longer in the parking lot and assumed he had left. At approximately 1900, First Sergeant Alvarez left a sticky note on their office door with his cell phone number directing Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro to contact him if he returned. Captain Kelley and First Sergeant Alvarez then departed after conducting one final sweep of the building. They both state that theirs were the last two cars to leave the parking lot. Enclosures (17, 19).

40. The Det 1, LS Co office spaces are located on the second deck of a building shared with other Army Reserve and National Guard units. The exterior doors remained locked at all times and require an authorized CAC card to gain access. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro did not have access to unlock any exterior doors. Enclosures (17, 19).

41. At approximately 0700, on 9 March 2021, First Sergeant Alvarez received a phone call from the base paramedics who had found someone unresponsive on the floor outside Det 1, LS Co office and after seeing a sticky note on the door with his phone number, contacted him. Enclosures (17, 19).

42. First Sergeant Alvarez was not yet on base, but contacted the Operations Chief, Staff Sergeant Fredley, who was already on base. First Sergeant Alvarez directed him to immediately go to their office to assist with the situation. Enclosures (17, 19, 20).

43. When SSgt Fredley arrived at approximately 0745, he saw an ambulance and multiple civilian personal standing outside the main entrance. SSgt Fredley spoke to the Fort Buchanan Fire Chief asking for details. After finding the police, the Fire Chief told SSgt Fredley and the base police that an Army Sergeant Major had found a person laying on the floor on the second deck of the building, appearing to be having seizures. The Army Sergeant Major then contacted emergency services who responded. The Army Sergeant Major stated that he also found a note on the door above where he found the Marine with 1stSgt Alvarez's information so he contacted him as well. Enclosure (20).

44. After linking up with the paramedics, SSgt Fredley confirmed it was Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro that was found, and then followed them to the hospital. Enclosure (20).

45. First Sergeant Alvarez proceeded to the LS Co office spaces and spoke with the army soldier who found Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro. The army soldier told him that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was found unconscious, approximately 20-30 feet in front of their office door passed out and contacted base emergency services. Enclosure (19).

46. First Sergeant Alvarez then looked up Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's record of emergency data and contacted his mother (who was listed as the point of contact), informed her of the situation and that her son was being transported to the hospital. Enclosures (19, 20).

47. First Sergeant Alvarez visited Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro in the hospital to return his personal cell phone. During the visit, First Sergeant Alvarez began by asking Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro how he was feeling. However, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, and his mother who was also in the room, quickly turned the conversation towards the legal issues related to the MPO and forensic review of his cellphone. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated to 1stSgt Alvarez that he felt blindsided and did not remember anything after signing the MPO and associated page 11 entry. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro also asked First Sergeant Alvarez if the Det 1, LS Co offices had any cameras. First Sergeant Alvarez summarized the conversation as more focused on the legal situation Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was in and did not engage in topics related to his recovery. Enclosure (19).

48. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro remained at the hospital until 12 March 2021 when he was discharged with no confirmed diagnosis of what caused the incident. Enclosures (13, 19, 20).

49. Also On 12 March 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro contacted Mr. Mark Stoddard, an investigator for the Marine Forces Reserve Inspector General's (IG) Office, to make a complaint against his command. Mr. Stoddard directed him to file the complaint via the IG webpage, which Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro did on 12 March 2021. Enclosures (26, 27).

50. The IG Complaint details two grievances: (1) That Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's unrestricted report of sexual assault was not handled properly; (2) that a medical episode he suffered during the course of his office visit on March 8th rendered him unable to consciously consent to a search of his phone and that his condition was completely disregarded by office staff who left him on the floor of the building, unconscious, overnight. Enclosure (26).

51. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro states in the IG Complaint that he chose to transition his restricted report to an unrestricted status on 15 February 2021, which is consistent with Mr. Daigle's statements. Enclosures (26, 29).

52. In the IG complaint, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro states he also spoke to his command ("1st Sgt and CO") on 16 February, and informed them that Ms. Negrón-Muñiz was attempting to sabotage his career. He also states that on 16 February, Ms. Jennifer Duhon (MARFORRES FAP) spoke with the "Inspector & Instructor" to "clarify the situation". The end of the IG Complaint clearly implies that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's command was aware of his sexual assault and declined to act, possibly due to Ms. Negrón-Muñiz close affiliation with his "chain of command". Enclosure (26).

53. When asked directly during their interviews, both First Sergeant Alvarez and Captain Kelley stated that were not aware of any of Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's sexual assault allegations. Enclosures (17, 19).

54. A investigation into the allegations made by Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was initiated on 17 March 2021 after Naval Criminal Investigation Service (NCIS) was contacted by the MFR IG Office. On 19 March 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro showed up at Army CID, Fort Buchanan (unscheduled) and requested to make a statement. This investigation concluded on 9 April 2021 and the case details forwarded to civilian authorities given that Ms. Negrón-Muñiz is a civilian and is outside of Department of Defense jurisdiction. At the time of this report, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's 19 March 2021 interview with Army CID has not been received by his command (pending delivery).

55. Captain Kelley and First Sergeant Alvarez were never notified of Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's unrestricted report. They were only aware that a restricted report within the unit had been submitted on 21 January 2021. Enclosure (30).

56. On 24 March 2021, the Investigative Officer interviewed Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, while he was in a drilling status at the Det 1, LS Co Offices aboard Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was advised of his Article 31(b) rights, acknowledged them, and voluntarily elected to waive his rights. Enclosure (12). The Investigating Officer audio-recorded the interview. Enclosure (13).

57. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that in his first or second year of college, prior to his relationship with Ms. Negrón-Muñiz, a female friend of his "had her way with him" while he was intoxicated and passed out. As a result, throughout his relationship with Glimary, he had issues with intimacy. Enclosure (13).

58. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged three sexual encounters with Ms. Negrón-Muñiz that he claims make him a victim of sexual assault. Enclosure (13).

59. In the first allegation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that after graduating Officer Candidate School, he flew to Orlando on 10 August 2019. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz picked him up from the airport with flowers, gifts, and a bottle of wine, and took him to an airbnb. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that she "intentionally got me drunk" and that because he had not consumed alcohol at OCS, claimed that with "one or two cups of wine . . . I was pretty much out of it." He further stated: "I didn't want to push her off because I could potentially push her off the bed and hurt her. But I did verbally say that I didn't feel comfortable and that I didn't really feel like doing anything." He described the alleged assault as follows: "But she did start taking my skivvie shorts off. And then she started doing oral. And then she eventually got on top of me and I really didn't feel like I could do anything to stop her." Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated that the two subsequently spent the a few days together in Orlando before spending the rest of the week in her dorm, where they had consensual intercourse.

60. In the second allegation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that he became voluntarily intoxicated at the Marine Corps Ball in 2019. He stated: "I did start drinking but I kind of stopped because I felt like I had to take care of other Marines." He further stated: "I do remember not being able to...not feeling sober enough to drive, so she is the one that drove us home to the airbnb." He described the alleged assault as follows:

"So that night, once I started taking my clothes off, she did push me to get intimate with her. And when I am drinking or when I have alcohol in my system, I don't like to be touchy, because I could accidentally do like an abrupt movement where I could hurt her. So after expressing that I was uncomfortable, she still pushed me to have sex with her. And we did end up having sex that night, but I very much expressed how uncomfortable I was with her."

Enclosure (13).

61. In the third allegation, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro alleged that in July 2020 during Annual Training, he was quarantining in a hotel room for two weeks due to the ongoing COVID pandemic. During this time, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz was bringing him food. After that, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz stayed with him and the two had an argument related to intimacy. He described the alleged assault as follows: "Eventually on that night we did end up being intimate because I feel like she forced me because she was putting the relationship on the line." Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro further alleged that: "It was clear that that relationship was emotionally abusive on her end towards me. So after that last incident, we spent a lot of time together, but I didn't really feel comfortable doing anything with her." Enclosure (13).

62. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro described his motivation for filing an unrestricted report as follows:

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C. HERNANDEZ BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

IO: So you said - February 1st - you said is when you stopped emailing her. So that's kind of like - was that the last communication you had with her?

ACC: Yeah, so I told her about the restricted report. I told her about how therapy or how the partial hospitalization was going. And then we - I stopped trying to communicate with her.

IO: So basically, after that email there's no other phone calls, anything like that?

ACC: No. So, I actually - one of the last things I told her was that she needed to send me back all of my personal belongings because she does have some of my military uniforms and she does have some of my personal belongings, so I tell her to send me back my personal belongings and then she replies with "that she will" and she's gonna send me my personal belongings but she never did.

IO: Ok. So that was like before that 1 February kind of -

ACC: Yeah (interjects)

IO: - end? Ok. So basically through February 1st of this year, kind of what happened next from there?

ACC: Yeah so after that, what happens is - I start talking to a shrink. And then what I agreed on doing was something that I want to do. Something that I wanted to do was to report this to the police. So I was - I wanted to make my report unrestricted, because she did threaten me with telling my chain of command about my personal situations.

Enclosure (13).

63. On or about 6 February 2021, prior to filing his unrestricted report on 15 February 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro filed a report with civilian law enforcement in Puerto Rico. According to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, civil authorities declined to prosecute. Enclosure (13).

64. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated to the Investigating Officer that he believed that filing an unrestricted report of sexual assault would protect him:

IO: So you did that with Mr. Daigle. Is he the one that directed you to Jennifer Dunham?

ACC: So he gave my information to Jennifer Dunham because she's a prevention program director at MARFORRES. And - I think she's just somebody else in the chain of command that could help me out.

IO: So she reached out to you?

ACC: Yeah, she did.

IO: Is that on the same day on the 15th?

ACC: On the 15th of February.

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C. HERNANDEZ BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

IO: Ok. So after that, she's reaching out . . . you guys talk about anything or just kind of go through the whole situation with her?

ACC: So yeah, I tell her about the situation that I'm enduring and then I ask her if she could talk to my chain of command because I don't want my chain of command to think that I'm only filing a report because of the things that she said. I tell her that if she could explain that I filed my initial report back in January and that I've been looking for resources and that I'm only making it unrestricted so that there is an official investigation so that I'm protected. Because I am the victim. I filed the reports. And you know, at least regarding that report I am the victim and then - the standard - there's a standard operating procedure. There is basic common knowledge that the victim should always be protected. You know unless there is evidence pointing towards something different.

Enclosure (13).

65. Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated in his interview that when he was called to the office on 8 March 2021, he became upset and stressed while signing the MPO. After that he handed over his cell phone to Agent Loyd of CID, and "blacked-out" and does not remember anything until waking up in the hospital two days later on 10 March 2021. His IG complaint also states that he was diagnosed at the hospital with PTSD, due to the sexual assault and being treated as a perpetrator by his command. Enclosures (13, 26).

66. When questioned about his access to explicit images of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro made the following statements to the Investigating Officer:

IO: And so - are you aware of any of the allegations she made in there?

ACC: I don't know anything. All I know is that she said that I - from what I saw in this paperwork and the military protective order that I was - like if its - if it has to do with the internet its probably me leaking pictures of her naked or something like that.

IO: So I'd like to go down that hole just a little bit - that rabbit hole. So, first off, do you have any photos of her?

ACC: Pictures of her?

IO: Yeah, like explicit photos of her?

ACC: I do not.

IO: Nude, naked, anything like that?

ACC: I do not.

IO: Alright, so you don't have any like videos or photos from her?

ACC: Nope.

IO: Ok.

ACC: And again, if that was something real that's a - that's a criminal offense.

Subj: INVESTIGATION INTO SUSPECTED MISCONDUCT OF CORPORAL JEAN C.
HERNANDEZ BARREIRO 1522399708/0481 USMCR

IO: I understand - even if was provided while you guys were still dating. I don't know if you guys - did you guys ever trade back and forth? Did she ever send to you?

ACC: Nope.

IO: Ok so basically you never received any sort of nude photos, videos, I don't know, social media posting type stuff?

ACC: No. I'm not really the texting...sexting type.

IO: Ok. You've never asked hey can you send me some nudes...hey do you have any? So, I'm just trying to see - trying to establish if you would have had access to these.

ACC: Uhm, I don't. Like its been three years of relationship but I dont recall me having - asking her - you know for naked pictures or anything.

IO: Ok. You said you don't currently or, you know - you never actually received any from her.

ACC: Not that I can recall. Like maybe - I've checked through my entire photo library and theres no pictures. There's a lot of pictures of us but not anything thats like explicit on her end.

Enclosure (13).

67. A forensic review of Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's personal cellphone showed that he had 24 explicit videos of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz. In these videos, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz appears to record herself in a mirror in various stages of undress, from topless to fully nude, and touching herself. These videos were added to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's personal cell phone from 23 January 2020 to 20 June 2020. Enclosure (15).

68. The explicit videos of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz found on Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's cell phone match the explicit photos used on the fake Instagram accounts found by Ms. Negrón-Muñiz. These fake Instagram accounts were found to be active from 22 – 24 March 2021 by the Investigating Officer, a period that Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro was in a drilling status. Enclosures (4, 9, 10, 15, 36).

69. According to Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro, his knowledge of the allegations against him were limited to what was contained in the legal paperwork and the military protective order, which he received on 22 February 2021 and 8 March 2021. (Enclosure 5, 6, 8, 13). The forensic review of Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro's personal cellphone showed that from 17-22 February 2021, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro conducted several google searches, searching: "Revenge porn threat florida", "How to get Instagram to delete my data", "Florida Rape Law", "Retaliation in Florida", "IP Tracker", "How to copy some ones avatar". Enclosure (15).

70. On 24 March 2021, when conducting an interview with the Investigating Officer after being read Article 31(b) rights, Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro stated that he had never received or possessed explicit photos or videos of Ms. Negrón-Muñiz on his cell phone. IO: So what social media accounts do you actually have?

ACC: So I think I have facebook but I haven't used facebook in years. I have a twitter but I only use it to follow things that are regarding a specific certain subject. So I don't use it like recreationally I use it professionally. I have - I had an instagram but I deleted it.

IO: You had instagram but you since deleted it?

ACC: Yeah.

IO: So for your twitter, do you know what your username is or anything like that?

ACC: Its jankee. j-a-n-k-e-e-lol.

IO: Ok and that's like your twitter handle username for that?

ACC: Yeah.

IO: Ok so you said - obviously your facebook is just your name, right?

ACC: I haven't used it in years. So probably out there but like I don't use it. I don't tend to use social media that much.

IO: Ok. You said you had an instagram? When is the last time you used it and when did you delete it?

ACC: About a month ago I would say.

IO: Ok. And then do you remember that username?

ACC: Same. Same one.

IO: That Jankeelol?

ACC: Yeah.

IO: This... and then I think I already asked this, in case I haven't. Did you ever - while you were talking you were texting and making phone calls. Did you ever reach out to her via any of these social media platforms? Twitter, instagram, facebook? Facebook you said you haven't used in years.

ACC: No, I haven't. I haven't. The only thing that I used to talk with her was text messaging and - text messages and email.

IO: Ok.

ACC: Yeah I'm not really big on social media so I don't like -

IO: Only text or email and then I know there's the phone calls we talked about as well obviously.

ACC: Yeah, but those were all before the - they should have ended on the 20th. After that I didn't make any phone calls.

IO: Ok. Is there any other social media accounts? I know there's snapchat - I think those are the big ones? Any of the other random ones out there?

ACC: No, I don't like to use any of those social media.

IO: Ok. You said you didn't have any photos. Did you ever make any other accounts? You know, maybe I haven't covered but any sort of accounts that could have created that are public or that somebody could access that you could have posted photos of her on?

ACC: Nope.

IO: So you never posted photos of her anywhere?

ACC: No.

IO: Ok. Included in that is fake dating websites - Tinder, Bumble, any of those dating kind of hookup sites.

11:34 am he sent a video/photo that showed all of my nude photos, an only fans account, a tinder account with my pictures, and a countdown clock for 8 hours. At 3:23 pm he messaged my friend: "I don't hear no objections, so imma just keep working on this. you do you, hopefully it does not dmg your friend that much idk. shes gotten a lot of fans on the main account but she or u don't care or mind by the looks of it so peace. hope you both enjoy this love-lovely dandy day." At 8:25 pm he messaged my friend

Signs Before the Break-Up:

- Jean studies computer science and engineering as well as be in the Marine Corps, so his shown knowledge in cyber procedures and military trained Moi Tai (lethal martial art) was both impressive and scary to know.
- In August 2019, Jean returned from Officer Candidate School. We rented an Airbnb, and one day after a disagreement over what to do for the rest of the day, he got mad, punched a pillow next to me and started yelling at/insulting me. I was terrified in knowing that his dad physically abused of his mom and he just finished his Moi Tai training, so I hid under the sheets and cried until he calmed down. I made sure to never provoke him again.
- In October 2020, while I was studying in Jacksonville, Jean traveled from Puerto Rico to Orlando and took various forms of transport until he found my exact location on campus in Jacksonville to surprise me. I was in shock from the gesture, but also concerned on how he was able to cover it up and find me.
- July-December 2020 we lived together in Puerto Rico in his apartment, and I learned that he did not like when I made plans, everything had to be clean and orderly or he would have to "hold in his rage", we couldn't have sex unless he initiated it, and he wanted to know who I spoke to and about what. Later on, telling me that I he wanted to know what I talked about confidentially in therapy. I was so frustrated and just imploring him all the time to do things with me that I often grew tired and just accepted it and stayed home, cleaned, asked why we couldn't be intimate, and didn't talk much.
- December 2020, I volunteered in his detachment's Toys for Tots program for the second time as an internship from my university track. He called and implored that I couldn't participate if he wasn't there physically with me, he got mad so I called and said I wouldn't be participating anymore. I felt ashamed and constrained to be his girlfriend and have to say that was the reason I couldn't do something I loved.

The Break-Up:

- New Years (December 31, 2020-January 1, 2021): I felt unsafe to break-up with Jean in person so I called him over the phone and told him I wanted to break up. I told him I was scared of him, and he was calm and hung up. He started calling me back and begging to stay together, that the reason he was harsh and not wanting intimacy was because he was sexually assaulted by someone in the first couple of months we started dating. It felt horrible to know someone did that to him, and I wanted to offer friendship while he went to therapy to deal with that but I didn't feel safe/loved if I dated him. I got on a plane and left for Florida to make sure I was safe. I felt a relief that I broke up with him.
- January 1-5, 2021- I had to block Jean and he created more than 5 different phone numbers from different area codes and proceeded to call me and text me from these relentlessly. I couldn't keep up with all the numbers I had to block and beg him to give me space (SEE PHOTOS). I was paranoid every time the phone rang it was going to be him. He didn't respect my wishes and I felt scared to trust him saying he would leave me alone.
- January 6-19: Jean then started emailing me from different accounts asking for us to talk or for me to reconsider (SEE EMAILS). We spoke on the phone and I asked for a peaceful way to end things or stay friends, and he didn't agree. I started growing sadder and heavier each day, I was scared to hear my phone's notification go off.
- January 20, 2021: I formally spoke with Jean over text and phone call (voice recorded with his consent, SEE PHOTO) to stop calling me and trying to get back together. I wanted this situation to be over with, I felt disgusted to have to break up again because I failed to do so successfully the first time. I had to have a friend with me to make sure I was strong enough to do it. I deleted all my social media apps that day and changed my phone number with my cellphone service out of fear to have him contact me.

- January 21-23, 2021: Jean reported the sexual assault to his workplace in the Marine Corps, he later on was admitted into the psychiatric hospital of Cabo Rojo. His mother contacted me because she didn't know why the hospital called her. He later sent through email he was prescribed antidepressants. It was hard to hear him go through that experience but also, I was happy he was getting the help he needed from professionals.
- January 24, 2021: Jean emailed me a suicide note, stating that I should take care of his family and where all of his belongings are, and that I'm not to blame for what he's about to do (SEE PHOTOS), I was terrified to have received that and I ran to contact him mom and brother and heavily insisted they help him and call him. The 3 of us made sure he was okay, and this was the only time I responded to ask if he was thinking of harming himself and telling him he didn't have to do this. He did not attempt/complete death by suicide, thankfully.
- January 25-January 31st: Jean kept emailing me, but now he created different email accounts, and proceeded to find my work email and email me there as well. He fluctuated between being sad and asking for forgiveness and being mad with me and insulting me for my decision. Also, he started sending pictures of paintings he created for me, I felt extremely uncomfortable receiving these and didn't respond. (SEE PAINTINGS AND EMAIL ACCOUNTS).
- February 1, 2021: Jean hacked my snapchat account and replaced my account email with one he created and emailed me from, he proceeded to call himself from my account and accessed my private and/or explicit photos without my consent. I was unaware since I turned off my email notifications due to his harassment. I felt extremely paranoid and changed all my accounts.
- February 3, 2021: Due to the new email accounts and persistent email harassment, I contacted Jean's immediate Marine Corps supervisor to file a complaint against him. He set a phone meeting for the next Tuesday. I felt a little better in knowing I could possibly stop these harassments.
- February 6, 2021: Jean messaged me on Instagram that he was "...doing questionable things right now" amongst other things (PHOTO). I didn't know what this meant but I started becoming hyperaware, locked the house and made sure I always told people where I was. His supervisor wasn't returning my calls and didn't excuse himself, I found out through a coworker that he was avoiding me so I stopped contacting him, and started being concerned they weren't going to help me stay safe.
- February 7, 2021: I was with a friend when she received notification that I typing a message to her on snapchat. I tried to log in and couldn't, I looked in my emails and saw that he tried to log in from his apartment and his personal cellphone into my account and succeeded. It shows where he switched all my login information for his. (SEE PHOTOS), I couldn't believe he was reaching these extremes and started fearing for what he was trying to achieve. I contacted snapchat and regained my account. I started losing sleep while I starting thinking what he was trying to do by doing all of this.
- February 13, 2021: my friend, Edmary, shows me a fake profile with an explicit profile photo of myself, that only Jean had access to, requested to follow her on Instagram. I download Instagram again and we notice he has made 3 different private accounts impersonating me with my explicit photos. I immediately report these to Instagram to have them taken down, and didn't hear back from Instagram. The amount of shame I felt in knowing he was sharing my nude photos without my consent was unbearable, to have to tell my family and friends this was happening was humiliating.

- February 14, 2021: Through these fake accounts, Jean messages me threats to me directly and through my friend towards me, saying to me directly: "Happy Valentine's Day! Genuinely hope you get to be happy in such a special occasion. Rapists, cheater, backstabbers and liar also deserve to be happy. Happy day to you. Good things coming your way" and to my friend saying: Happy Valentines' day, good things coming her way . (SEE PHOTOS) Jean sent Edmary a threat video showing that he created an OnlyFans account and Tinder account with my photos as well, and a countdown for 8 hours from Miami, Florida. I feared he had traveled from Puerto Rico to Florida again with no warning (SEE PHOTO). I was so incredibly scared I contacted the police and the FBI, I was terrified this wasn't going to be taken seriously because it's cyber but he was possibly going to show up in person. I even contacted his 3 supervisors in fear to see if anyone could make him stop, they said they couldn't do anything but mentor him and he said "he wasn't speaking with anyone he wasn't supposed to". I contacted his mom and asked her to tell him to stop, and once she spoke with him he said he wasn't doing anything bad. I started feeling powerless of what he did, my reputation ruined, and my privacy violated. I reported all the accounts to all the apps. He kept making even more accounts with my name and photo on them (SEE PHOTOS). He sent more messages to my friend saying: "I don't heat no objections, so imma just keep working on this, you do you, hopefully it does not damage your friend that much idk. Shes gotten a lot of fans on the main account but she or u don't care or mind by the looks of it so peace. Hope you both enjoy this fine lovely dandy day", and in one of the accounts we were able to see two posts and vengeful message, such as: I know your going through a lot right now, just know you did this to yourself" (SEE PHOTO). I started feeling even more shame that there was possibly some of my past underage students seeing these accounts and following them. As well as my friends and family. He told my friend he had won, and sent uncomfortable bible verses as well, such as: "The work is done I won Matthew 24:6". (SEE PHOTO).
- February 15, 2021: I downloaded snapchat again and noticed three different accounts under the same names with messages/threats to me, such as: "the work is done. I won. What I'm about to do, I'm gonna enjoy it. Very very much!" and "I'd advise you to communicate, when and if you see this. Someone will be avoiding things getting hella ugly. I'll be waiting :)))" (SEE PHOTOS). He also updated the accounts and announced "more content" soon. I kept trying to find resources to protect myself with and contacted them all.
- February 16, 2021: I now fear taking these legal actions will irritate him more, and like he's done in the past the next time his revenge will be worse. I'm scared to my bone that I don't know if he caught a plane and is in Florida or hiding in Puerto Rico and he can travel at any time. He knows where all my living addresses are, he knows where my family lives, he's trained in Moi Tai, he's trained in cybersecurity, I'm scared this will never stop. I can't sleep, can't eat, have to miss work and school and tell them all about this and I don't feel safe in any sense of the word. I am trying to find help from a psychologist and group therapy but it's becoming unbearable, it's been almost a month and a half since this started and it has only gotten worse each week. I feel harassed physically, emotionally, cybernetically, psychologically, and at the end of the day I need to make sure he doesn't harm anyone or me.

Hey,

Today is wed 20 Jan, right after our lovely phone call.

I am very grateful fir all of the things you said, i just want to know that you are forgiven, i am sorry, and i will not hold anything against your persona, we're only human.

I am having it scheduled to send it to you a few days in the future, i know i said a few weeks but i figured 1 ish will do. We, need a few weeks to process this conversation. I felt so revealed, so releved. I don't know if i will

Be able to express how i feel in a couple of weeks. I just hope you know that I am making bad choices all around. I am crying at my inability to do the simplest things to make you happy, to make whatever we will end up having, friends, lovesre, penpals, i dont care.

We are so much a like and so different when it comes to feelings and communication.

I'd very much enjoy life if we could share some aspects of it. There are so many choices. I would've done to guve you ease of mind, so many dumb things i cannt even think if at the moment. What i was asking as a yes or no, this might be one of thos ebad choices. I even rear we midnt not talk a yes or no, this might be one of those bad choices. I even fear we might not talk anymore, and I know it will be my fault. You asked for a year and that's what I'll be doing with a few drop ins from here and there. Glimary, knowing the troubles I am making you go through would stop if I just didn't exist anymore. I've rarely been able to interact with life in such a beautiful way that you and my family has.

If we end up not talking, I'm sorry because it's my fault. I might be pushing you again into something you are not comfortable with. I'm such a knucklehead.

This is me, opening up on my past, we can work on it, with a THERAPIST together, one I might've been able to book for this upcoming week in the future, should be Jan 30 and you it can be all virtual with a professional. I appreciate you looking too.

In case anything happens.

All if my computer accounts are on the notes app on my iMac

All my financial information is there too

As well as small envelope that I hope I'll be throwing away. But it's just in case, my choices have all been bad. I hope you know how much I truly appreciate you love. You love for plants and cute things, I can't even love for plants and cute things, i cant even process.

But if i can express my love one last time, from these words, no phones, no textss, not a person with expectations, these are just my words.

I love you, we fell in love during awful times, we got poppy eyes and decided to meet up on a short notice. We enjoyed out first lovely dates, though i messed up a few things you are still as calc and beautiful as you have always been.

The reservation i made in whispering oaks was the placw i knew youd love and certainly a place where id like to marry you someday, in the far far future. Just like our chick-fil-a dates and our first vegan encounter. Someday new memories will Be made. We were strangers back then. We didn't know any better, we knew intentions, thats it.

I see that now, i learned a couple of songs, and draw rings and painig for us to share. And you are still processing what is happening. In the end I don't know what to do. I need guidance in these times of suffering. I am suffering because theres too much uncertainty. The best way to go was to be your friend I take this for granted. I to be your friend. I take this for granted. I am worthless and uncpable of understanding how you feel. I was not always like this..... my tears are pillin up on the ohone. Please, my sweetheart, i beg of you cut-ty-eyes, devilheir, booty liceous, lovely amber.

If we survive our next conversation, this can be disregarded.

If not, please give support to my mom and brother and maui..... you four mean so much and i alsways tro to go out if my way to help you all, not taling into account the danger i can be in. If i go, there will be nothing to stress about. Not on my side, I'll just go one with whatever CESCO death is, you look like youll find your peace. I hope my family does to i really do, please, I can't help them.

Until tomorrows convo.

To my dearly beloved, glimary, the only person that made me open up about my troubles..... I love you....

The one thing in life I would've loved to have done is meet your grandfather. I genuinely think at the beginning we would've connected on various levels. I understand how important he was to you. commitment is something we'd probably be talking about in the bowling alley. I remember taking you there so we'd can at least connect in some way. I know very little about him, yet i knew he was your role model and there were times where I'd aspire to be like him, not just for you, but because of the inspiration he gave you and likely many others. He'd be the first person I'd ask for advice in life, since i never had people so inspirational such as him.

The too letter in the counter was for you, but you will likely never read it, since, yeah, you are being a really huge jerk. I thought i could count on you in these rough times but reality takes time to settle in and you clearly don't care enough to contact me again. Whatever. I tried as much and i could and it was not enough for you. That pretty much sums it up. And a few words on your grandpa, which i admit to admire in a sense that i never got the privilege to meet. And his advice i mourn to ask but never could.

Keep this to yourself, i do not consent the distribution or sharing these words with anyone but you, Glimary, Babs. All i meeded was a few words, not answers but whatever you are doing clearly is making you happy.

I'm taking a walk in survival beach. Phone off. letters in countr.

I tried. I loved you as a friend at furst, and then as a lover. The complication between those two revolved around my head.

Whatever, you dont care to listen,'uch less tlk

Bye.

AMENDED TEMPORARY INJUNCTION FOR PROTECTION AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WITHOUT MINOR CHILD(REN)

The Petition for Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence under section 741.30, Florida Statutes, and other papers filed in this Court have been reviewed. Under the laws of Florida, the Court has jurisdiction of the Petitioner and the subject matter and has jurisdiction of the Respondent upon service of the temporary injunction.

It is intended that this protection order meet the requirements of 18 U.S.C. Section 2265 and therefore intended that it be accorded full faith and credit by the court of another state or Indian tribe and enforced as if it were the order of the enforcing state or of the Indian tribe.

SECTION I. NOTICE OF HEARING

Because this Temporary Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence has been issued without prior notice to Respondent, Petitioner and Respondent are instructed that they are scheduled to appear and testify at a hearing regarding this matter on the 03/01/2021 at 09:00 AM, when the Court will consider whether the Court should issue a Final Judgment of Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence, which would remain in effect until modified or dissolved by the Court, and whether other things should be ordered, including, for example, such matters as support. The hearing will be before The Honorable R GREGG JERALD at JUDICIAL CENTER, COURTROOM 4C 110 NW 1ST AVE OCALA, FL. If Petitioner and/or Respondent do not appear, this temporary injunction may be continued in force, extended, dismissed, and/or additional orders may be granted, including entry of a permanent injunction and the imposition of court costs. Petitioner and Respondent will be bound by the terms of any injunction or order issued at the final hearing.

IF EITHER PETITIONER OR RESPONDENT DOES NOT APPEAR AT THE FINAL HEARING, HE OR SHE WILL BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF ANY INJUNCTION OR ORDER ISSUED IN THIS MATTER.

All witnesses and evidence, if any, must be presented at this time. In cases where temporary support issues have been alleged in the pleadings, each party is ordered to bring his or her financial affidavit (Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.902(b) or (c)), tax return, pay stubs, and other evidence of financial income to the hearing.

NOTICE: Because this is a civil case, there is no requirement that these proceedings be transcribed at public expense.

YOU ARE ADVISED THAT IN THIS COURT:

- a. ☐ a court reporter is provided by the court.
- b. ☒ an electronic recording only is provided by the court. A party may arrange in advance for the services of and provide for a court reporter to prepare a written transcript of the proceedings at that party's expense.

A RECORD, WHICH INCLUDES A TRANSCRIPT, MAY BE REQUIRED TO SUPPORT AN APPEAL. THE PARTY SEEKING THE APPEAL IS RESPONSIBLE FOR HAVING THE TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY A COURT REPORTER. THE TRANSCRIPT MUST BE FILED WITH THE REVIEWING COURT OR THE APPEAL MAY BE DENIED.

If you are a person with a disability who needs any accommodation in order to participate in this proceeding, you are entitled, at no cost to you, to the provision of certain assistance. Please contact the ADA Coordinator at the Office of the Trial Court Administrator, Marion County Judicial Center, 110 NW First Avenue, Ocala, Florida 34475, Telephone (352)401-6710, at least 7 days before your scheduled court appearance, or immediately upon receiving this notification if the time before the scheduled appearance is less than 7 days; if you are hearing or voice impaired, call 711.

SECTION II. FINDINGS

The statements made under oath by Petitioner make it appear that section 741.30, Florida Statutes, applies to the parties. Hey,

Today is wed 20 Jan, right after our lovely phone call.

I am very grateful fir all of the things you said, i just want to know that you are forgiven, i am sorry, and i will not hold anything against your persona, we're only human.

I am having it scheduled to send it to you a few days in the future, i know i said a few weeks but i figured 1 ish will do. We, need a few weeks to process this conversation. I felt so revealed, so releved. I don't know if i will

Be able to express how i feel in a couple of weeks. I just hope you know that I am making bad choices all around. I am crying at my inability to do the simplest things to make you happy, to make whatever we will end up having, friends, lovesre, penpals, i dont care.

We are so much a like and so different when it comes to feelings and communication.

I'd very much enjoy life if we could share some aspects of it. There are so many choices. I would've done to guve you ease of mind, so many dumb things i cannt even think if at the moment. What i was asking as a yes or no, this might be one of thos ebad choices. I even fear we might not talk

a yes or no, this might be one of those bad choices. I even fear we might not talk anymore, and I know it will Be my fault. You asked for a year and that's what I'll be doing with a few drop ins from here and there. Glimary, knowing the troubles I am making you go through would stop if I just didn't exist anymore. I've rarely been able to interact with life in such a beautiful way that you and my family has.

If we end up not talking, I'm sorry because it's my fault. I might be pushing you again into something you are not comfortable with. I'm such a knucklehead.

This is me, opening up on my past, we can work on it, with a THERAPIST together, one I might've been able to book for this upcoming week in the future, should be Jan 30 and you it can be all virtual with a professional. I appreciate you looking too.

In case anything happens.

All if my computer accounts are on the notes app on my iMac

All my financial information is there too

As well as small envelope that I hope I'll be throwing away. But it's just in case, my choices have all been bad. I hope you know how much I truly appreciate you love. You love for plants and cute things, I can't even love for plants and cute things, i cant even process.

But if i can express my love one last time, from these words, no phones, no textss, not a person with expectations, these are just my words.

I love you, we fell in love during awful times, we got poppy eyes and decided to meet up on a short notice. We enjoyed our first lovely dates, though i messed up a few things you are still as calm and beautiful as you have always been.

The reservation i made in whispering oaks was the place i knew you'd love and certainly a place where i'd like to marry you someday, in the far far future. Just like our chick-fil-a dates and our first vegan encounter. Someday new memories will be made. We were strangers back then. We didn't know any better, we knew intentions, that's it.

I see that now, i learned a couple of songs, and draw rings and painting for us to share. And you are still processing what is happening. In the end I don't know what to do. I need guidance in these times of suffering. I am suffering because there's too much uncertainty. The best way to go was to be your friend. I take this for granted. I

to be your friend. I take this for granted. I am worthless and uncpable of understanding how you feel. I was not always like this..... my tears are pillin up on the ohone. Please, my sweetheart, i beg of you cut-ty-eyes, devilheir, booty liceous, lovely amber.

If we survive our next conversation, this can be disregarded.

If not, please give support to my mom and brother and maui..... you four mean so much and i alsways tro to go out if my way to help you all, not taling into account the danger i can be in. If i go, there will be nothing to stress about. Not on my side, I'll just go one with whatever CESCO death is, you look like youll find your peace. I hope my family does to i really do, please, I can't help them.

Until tomorrows convo.

To my dearly beloved, glimary, the only person that made me open up about my troubles..... I love you....

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

From: Captain Brandon A. Griffith 1032214580/0402 USMC
To: Files

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH MS. GLIMARY
NEGRÓN-MUÑIZ

Encl: (1) Social Media Screen Shots

1. On March 4, 2021, I conducted a telephonic interview with Ms. Glimary Negrón-Muñiz. Ms. Negrón provided the following information:

a. Ms. Negrón and Corporal (Cpl) Jean C. Hernandez-Barreiro first became acquainted when both were twelve years old and living in Puerto Rico. Eight years later, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro reached out to Ms. Negrón via social media, beginning a romantic relationship in 2018. Their relationship was initially based online while Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro lived in Puerto Rico and Ms. Negrón lived in Florida. The two would spend major holidays and events together and visiting each other when possible.

b. Shortly after Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro returned from attending Officer Candidate School (OCS) in August 2019, the two took a vacation together. While on this vacation, the two had a disagreement over what activities to conduct for the rest of the day. This disagreement resulted in Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro yelling at Ms. Negrón, insulting her and punching a pillow next to her on the bed. Ms. Negrón responded by hiding under the sheets and crying until Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro calmed down. Ms. Negrón expressed that this was out of character for him and attributed it to the stress and lack of sleep Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro experienced while he was at OCS. Ms. Negrón expressed that this incident was out of character for him prior to attending OCS and that it marked a shift in his behavior for the rest of their relationship, were Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro became more easily annoyed or frustrated.

c. Ms. Negrón and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro continued dating, moving in together in July 2020, residing at Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's apartment in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. They continued to live together through December 2020. While living together, Ms. Negrón expressed that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro did not like it when she would make plans without informing him, or did not clean their apartment well enough, becoming irritated and stating that he was having to hold in his rage and one day he would snap.

d. In October of 2020, Ms. Negrón was studying in Jacksonville, Florida for a short period of time when Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro showed up at one of her classes unannounced. She stated

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH MS. GLIMARY
NEGRÓN MUÑIZ

Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro would not have known where she was on the campus, and that he said he flew to Orlando, Florida and took a bus to the campus and then began asking around until he found her. She stated while she took it as an act of kindness, it did slightly upset her that he showed up unannounced like that.

e. On News Year Eve of 2020 (31 December 2020 – 1 January 2021), Ms. Negrón stated that she initially ended the relationship with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro. Ms. Negrón stated that given Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's previous instances of losing his temper, she felt afraid to end the relationship in person and left the apartment, ending the relationship over the phone. She had a scheduled flight from Puerto Rico to Florida as she did not want to stay around him and ultimately flew to Florida after breaking up with him.

f. During the course of the conversation in which Ms. Negrón ended the relationship, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro told her that he believed he was sexually assaulted at the beginning of their relationship and that was why he could not be intimate with her to her standards. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro stated to Ms. Negrón that he had gone to a bar with friends and at some point lost his memory and only remembers waking up at another girl's apartment, believing he was sexually assaulted. Ms. Negrón explained that throughout the course of their relationship she had wanted Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro to be more intimate with her and that he was resistant at times, but would still participate in intimate encounters. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro further stated that since she asked him to be intimate and he felt pressured to be intimate with her that Ms. Negrón had also sexually assaulted him and he would report her unless they stayed together.

g. After the initial break-up conversation, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro continued to call and text Ms. Negrón after she said to stop calling her and leave her alone. She ultimately blocked his phone number. Ms. Negrón then stated she continued to receive multiple phone calls and texts from Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro all from different numbers, with different area codes. In addition to the text and calls, Hernandez-Barreiro sent several emails and included attachments of paintings he said he made.

h. The two spoke over the phone on 20 January, 2021 and Ms. Negrón recorded the conversation with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's permission. Through the course of the conversation, Ms. Negrón makes it clear that she does not want to continue their relationship and that he should stop trying to contact her.

i. On 24 January, 2021, Ms. Negrón stated that she received an email from Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro indicating he was planning to commit suicide and that she should help take care of his family. She then reached out to him and his family to get him help.

j. Ms. Negrón stated that she learned that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had reported his sexual assault mentioned during their break-up to his command and was later admitted to a psychiatric hospital in Cabo Rojo, PR. She learned this after she was contacted by his mother .

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH MS. GLIMARY
NEGRÓN MUÑIZ

k. On 1 February, Ms. Negrón believes that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro signed into her snapchat account and changed the primary email address associated with the account. She stated that while they were dating she had shared all of her passwords with him. She provided screen shots of the emails from snapchat indicating that here snapchat account was logged into and primary email address changing to an account named "wannabepicassoo@gmail.com". She did not discover that this had occurred until 7 February, 2021 when she was with a friend who informed her that she saw that she was typing a message to her on snapchat. This was not the case as she had previously deleted the app and was with her friend in person and not on snapchat.

l. Ms. Negrón stated that she maintained explicit photos within this account and that she had also previously sent Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro explicit photos while they were dating. She stated that she had not provided any of these photos to anyone else.

m. On 6 February, 2021, Ms. Negrón stated that she received an Instagram message from an account named "jankeelol" which she said belonged to Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro. In this message, the "jankeelol" account stated he was "...doing questionable things right now."

n. On 13 February, 2021, Ms. Negrón was with her friend Edmary, when her friend showed her a fake Instagram account which featured an explicit photo of her. Ms. Negrón stated that only Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro would have had access to that photo. The account was named "wannabepicassooo" matching the email address that her snapchat account was changed too. Through her friend, Ms. Negrón found several other Instagram accounts featuring her likeness.

o. On 14 February, 2021 Ms. Negrón's friend Edmary received a video showing that someone had created an OnlyFans account and a Tinder account featuring explicit photos of Ms. Negrón. The video also included a countdown for 8 hours, alluding those accounts would go live once the time was up. She also received an Instagram message from an account named "valentine.day.gift" which made threats, indicating something was going to happen. Later in the day she received another message from this account saying the job was done, indicating that OnlyFans and Tinder accounts were active. She was unable to view these accounts as she did nto have permission. These sites, along with all of the fake Instagram accounts found were private and she did not have the permissions to view the post or contents.

p. After receiving the message and seeing the video, Ms. Negrón contacted the local police, FBI, and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's command. She spoke with 1stSgt Alvarez who indicated that since the Marine was a reservist and not in a drilling status, that he could not do anything. He advised her to contact the local authorities. She contacted the Ocala Police Department who initiated an investigation under the case number "202100023435".

q. On 16 February, 2021 Ms. Negrón initiated the process to seek an injunction for protection against domestic violence. The Circuit Court for the Fifth Circuit of Florida made permanent the protection order on 1 March, 2021.

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH CAPTAIN KEVIN KELLEY 15362770600/0402 USMC

1. On March 18, 2021, I conducted a telephonic interview with Captain (Capt) Kevin Kelley, Inspector-Instructor, Detachment 1, Landing Support Company, Combat Logistics Regiment 45. Capt Kelley provided the following information:

a. On 8 March, 2021, Corporal (Cpl) Hernandez-Barreiro was contacted by First Sergeant (1stSgt) Alvarez to come into the unit offices to sign a Military Protective Order (MPO) and conduct a search and seizure of his personal cell phone which was authorized by the Commanding Officer of Combat Logistics Regiment 45.

b. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro arrived at the unit office at approximately 1530, 8 March, 2021. at approximately 1600 that day, Capt Kelley began reviewing the MPO with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro by reading the document line by line and answering any questions. Agent Loyd of the Fort Buchanan Army Criminal Investigation Division (CID) field office assisted in answering any questions. After the MPO was read and all questions answered, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro signed the MPO, along with a page 11 counseling indicating that he acknowledges he has been issued a civilian restraining order and been issued a MPO. 1stSgt Alvarez then collected Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's rifle cards.

c. Capt Kelley then asked if Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro we would be willing to voluntarily allow a search and seizure of his personal cell phone. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro indicated that he was and signed a consent to search his phone. At that time, Capt Kelley retrieved the phone and left with Agent Loyd to conduct the hard-drive extraction of Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's cell phone at the CID field office. 1stSgt Alvarez and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro remained in the unit office space.

i. Capt Kelley returned to the office at 1800 with the phone extraction still ongoing and not expected to be completed until the following morning. Upon returning 1stSgt Alvarez informed Capt Kelley that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had left without informing anyone. They both proceeded to search the building for him but did not locate him.

They both left and locked the office behind them, with 1stSgt Alvarez leaving a note with his phone number on the door directing Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro to call him if he returned.

k. The following morning at approximately 0700, 1stSgt Alvarez notified him that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro was found unresponsive outside of their office and was being taken to the hospital via the base emergency services. Staff Sergeant (SSgt) Fredley, the detachment Operations Chief, was on site and would follow the ambulance to the hospital.

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH CAPTAIN KEVIN
KELLEY 15362770600/0402 USMC

1. On March 24, 2021, I conducted an in-person interview with Captain (Capt) Kevin Kelley, Inspector-Instructor, Detachment 1, Landing Support Company (Det 1, LS Co), Combat Logistics Regiment 45. Capt Kelley provided the following information:

a. Capt Kelley was notified by the unit Sexual Assault Prevention and Response – Victim Advocate (SAPR-VA) on 21 January, 2021 that there had been a restricted report of sexual assault. Given the restricted nature of the report no other details were provided, only that a report was made.

b. On 14 February, 2021, the command received a call from Corporal (Cpl) Hernandez-Barreiro's ex-girlfriend stating that he was making threats against her and that he may harm himself. The command also received a call from Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's Officer Selection Officer, Capt Jennifer Norena, stating she also received a phone call from the Marine's ex-girlfriend making similar statements. First Sergeant (1stSgt) Alvarez then reached out to the Marine to ensure he was okay and not making any threats or taking any adverse actions. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro said he was fine and had not been threatening or harassing his ex-girlfriend. 1stSgt Alvarez called Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's ex-girlfriend back to let her know he talked to the Marine and that if she still felt threatened or in trouble, to contact the local civilian authorities who have the authority to intervene if required.

c. A few days after 15 February, 2021 (exact date unknown), Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro came into the unit offices and spoke with Capt Kelley and 1stSgt Alvarez. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro explained to them that he was going through a break-up with his ex-girlfriend and there was a lot going on surrounding the actual break-up. Capt Kelley stated that he did not go into much detail, but mostly broad statements. He did not mention any sexual assault or that he had made any sort of sexual assault report (restricted or unrestricted).

d. A few days after speaking with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro in their office (exact date unknown), a female (name unknown) called from what he thought was the Family Advocacy Program (did not recall exactly), stating that he had a Marine, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro who needed assistance from the base's resources concerning his relationship. The caller did not mention any sexual assault allegations and Capt Kelley assumed this was in reference to the Marine's break-up.

e. On 8 March, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro came into the office to sign the MPO issued by the Commanding Officer (CO) of Combat Logistics Regiment 45 (CLR-45) and to conduct a search and seizure of his personal cell phone which was also authorized by the CO, CLR-45. Capt Kelley was given the required documents and instructions on how to properly execute them by the 4th Marine Logistics Group (4th MLG) Staff Judge Advocate, Maj Corey Squires.

f. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro arrived at their office at approximately 1530. At approximately 1600, Capt Kelley began issuing the MPO by reading the document line by line to ensure Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro fully understood the contents. 1stSgt Alvarez and Agent Loyd of the Fort Buchanan Army Criminal Investigative Division (CID) field office were also in the room to assist and provide additional knowledge for any questions Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro may have had. After reading the MPO and answering all questions Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had, he signed the MPO, corresponding page 11, and handed over his weapons cards.

g. After issuing the MPO, Capt Kelley asked if Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro would be willing to voluntarily hand over his personal cell phone for review, which he stated he was and signed the consent to search and seizure of the phone. After handing over his phone, Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro was getting frustrated and began to cry. 1stSgt Alvarez began giving him a speech to encourage him and calm him down. This appeared to work and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro was directed to remain behind in the operations office while the phone extraction was to take place. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro asked if he could go to his car, but 1stSgt Alvarez told him to wait until they were done with his phone.

h. After taking the phone, Capt Kelley left with Agent Loyd to conduct the hard-drive extraction at the CID field office. Capt Kelley remained there until approximately 1800 when he returned to the unit office. Given the amount of files on Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's phone, the extraction was estimated to take overnight to complete.

i. Upon returning to the unit office, 1stSgt Alvarez informed Capt Kelley that he believed Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had left the building. The two proceeded to search all spaces within the building and did not find him. After conducting a final sweep of their office spaces, Capt Kelley and 1stSgt Alvarez left the office and locked the door. 1stSgt Alvarez left a sticky note with his phone number on their door directing Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro to contact him. When Capt Kelley and 1stSgt Alvarez reached the parking lot, their cars were the only ones remain and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro's car was no longer parked present. Capt Kelley made the assumption that Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro had left the area via his car.

j. The Det 1, LS Co offices are located in a two story, shared building on Fort Buchanan. Their office spaces are located on the second deck, taking up about half of the area on the second deck. The exterior doors remain locked at all times and require authorized CAC cards to gain entrance. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro did not have access to re-enter the building on his own unless someone else let him in.

k. on 9 March, 2021 at approximately 0700, 1stSgt Alvarez contacted Capt Kelley to inform him that Cpl Hernandez-Barrerio had been found outside of their office unresponsive and that he was being taken to the hospital via ambulance. 1stSgt Alvarez also informed him that Staff Sergeant (SSgt) Fredley, Det 1, LS Co Operations Chief, was on the scene and would follow him to the hospital.

l. Alvarez and Capt Kelley were told by the army Soldier who found Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro that the Marine was found outside of their office door on the second deck. After finding the Marine, the soldier contacted base emergency services and then seeing the note on the door, contacted 1stSgt Alvarez.

m. Capt Kelley was unsure of how Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro get back inside the office, but said it was common for people to let others into the building if they see someone waiting outside.

f. After the consent to search was signed, Capt Kelley and CID Agent Loyd, took his cell phone and proceeded to the Puerto Rico Field Office of the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Division, located aboard Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico to conduct the extraction of his phone.

All other Marines had left for the day, and it only the two of them remained in the offices. 1stSgt Alvarez spoke with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro and then directed to wait in the operation offices. ANDREW J. FREDLEY 1455236440/0481 USMC

1. On March 22, 2021, I conducted an in-person interview at Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico with Staff Sergeant (SSgt) Andrew J. Fredley, Inspector-Instructor Operations Chief, Detachment 1, Landing Support Company, Combat Logistics Regiment 45. SSgt Fredley provided the following information:

a. At 0730 on 9 March, 2021 he was driving to the home training center (HTC) on Fort Buchanan when he received a call from First Sergeant (1stSgt) Alvarez asking if he was on his way into the office. SSgt Fredley spoke to the Fort Buchanan Fire Chief asking for details. After finding the police, the Fire Chief told SSgt Fredley and the base police that an Army Sergeant Major had found a person laying on the floor on the second deck of the building, appearing to be having seizures. The Army Sergeant Major then contacted emergency services who responded. The Army Sergeant Major also found a note on the door above where he found the Marine with 1stSgt Alvarez's information so he contacted him as well.

c. Shortly after this, Cpl Hernandez was taken to a local hospital and admitted to the emergency room. SSgt Fredley remained at the hospital with the Marine and provided what information he knew to the medical staff. SSgt Fredley contacted the I&I S-1 to ask for the record of emergency data (RED) for the Marine so that he could contact his next of kin. This was Cpl HernandezBarreiro's mother and SSgt Findley contacted her over the phone. Cpl HernandezBarreiro's mother stated that she was worried about him and that he never came home the night previously. After the short phone call, Cpl HernandezBarreiro's mother arrived at the hospital. SSgt Fredley remained at the hospital until relieved by the duty around 1200 that day.

d. SSgt Fredley has stated that he saw Cpl HernandezBarreiro at the HTC the previous day on 8 March, 2021. When SSgt Fredley first saw him on the morning of 9 March, Cpl HernandezBarreiro was wearing the same clothes that he was in the day prior.

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH STAFF
SERGEANT ANGEL L. MELENDEZ 1396582917/0111 USMC

1. On March 22, 2021, I conducted an in-person interview at Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico with Staff Sergeant (SSgt) Angel L. Melendez, Inspector-Instructor Administration Chief, Detachment 1, Landing Support Company, Combat Logistics Regiment 45. SSgt Melendez provided the following information:

a. SSgt Melendez first met and began working with Ms. Glimary Negron Muniz in November to December 2019 via the Toys for Tots (T4T) program. SSgt Melendez served as the T4T coordinator for Detachment 1, Landing Support Company (Det 1, LS Co), Combat Logistics Regiment 45. Ms. Negron primarily provided strategic communication support, assisting SSgt Melendez with coordinating local news, radio, and social media to advertise the ongoing T4T campaign during the 2019 holiday season. SSgt Melendez stated that Ms. Negron was highly impactful to the program. During the T4T campaign, Ms. Negron would also assist in the local T4T warehouse with her then boyfriend, Cpl HernandezBarreiro and SSgt Melendez observed the relationship to be good, with no signs of animosity or troubles.

b. Ms. Negron again volunteered with the T4T campaign in Puerto Rico, however she only assisted in-person on two occasions early in the season. Ms. Negron later contacted SSgt Melendez and stated that she would only be able to assist virtually, still coordinating the messaging of the T4T campaign, due to her boyfriend, Cpl HernandezBarreiro, not wanting her to be alone at the T4T warehouse without him around. She continued volunteering for the rest of the 2020 T4T season as a productive volunteer.

c. Ms. Negron again contacted SSgt Melendez via phone sometime at the end of January 2021 or the beginning of February 2021 (SSgt Melendez was unable to recall the exact date). During this phone call, Ms. Negron asked what the next step would be to have Cpl HernandezBarreiro stop contacting her after they ended their relationship. She told SSgt Melendez that she did not want to get him in trouble or ruin his Marine Corps career, only have him stop contacting her. SSgt Melendez stated that while he was not on a drill or duty status, he could not help her. SSgt Melendez further told her that she can contact the local authorities to seek civilian action.

SERGEANT ANGEL L. MELENDEZ 1396582917/0111 USMC

d. SSgt Melendez was again contacted by Ms. Negron roughly one week after her first request for assistance to have Cpl HernandezBarreiro leave her alone. SSgt Melendez was unable to answer the phone and attempted to call her back later but received no response. The two continued to call each other about three more times each with the other never able to get through. SSgt Melendez stated that prior to one of the instances of trying to return her call, Ms. Negron contacted SSgt Milan on the I&I staff asking for SSgt Melendez to call her back. SSgt Melendez again tried to call her back with no response.

e. On 14 February, 2021, SSgt Melendez was contacted by Cpl HernandezBarreiro's Officer Selection Officer (OSO), Capt Norena, who stated she was contacted by the Ms. Negron who told her that Cpl HernandezBarreiro was in danger of harming himself. SSgt Melendez notified the I&I, 1stSgt, and Platoon Sergeant who reached contacted Cpl HernandezBarreiro said he was doing good and was not planning to harm himself.

f. On 1 March, SSgt Melendez received via the postal system a copy of a court hearing for that date, a temporary protective order, and a pretention for a protection order filed by Ms. Negron. SSgt Melendez notified the I&I chain of command.

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH CAPTAIN
JENNIFER NORENA 1500978135/5803 USMC

1. On March 16, 2021, I conducted a telephonic interview with Captain (Capt) Jennifer Norena, Officer Selection Officer (OSO), Officer Selection Team South Florida. Capt Norena provided the following information:

a. Capt Norena has served as the OSO for Corporal (Cpl) HernandezBarreiro since July 2020 when she took over OSO duties for south Florida from the previous OSO. Upon executing a turnover with the outgoing OSO, Cpl HernandezBarreiro was briefed as not having any issues or cause for concern. She stated Cpl HernandezBarreiro completed Officer Candidate School (OCS) in August 2019 and is scheduled to commission in May 2022, pending completion of his degree. During the first several months serving as OSO, she was unable to travel to Puerto Rico (PR) to visit the Marine and only interacted with him over the phone until 15 February, 2021.

b. On 13 February, 2021, Capt Norena was contacted by Ms. Glimary Negrón, asking for her assistance to stop Cpl HernandezBarreiro from contacting her. She told Capt Norena that he had been making threats over email and that she did not feel safe. When Capt Norena asked why she felt unsafe, Ms. Negrón stated that Cpl HernandezBarreiro contacted her through a friend and at 1900 that evening he was going to do something stupid. Capt Norena advised her that if she felt unsafe she should contact the local authorities, but that she would reach out Cpl HernandezBarreiro's command to advise them of the situation. Ms. Negrón stated to her that she had tried calling but that no one was responding.

c. Capt Norena, immediately contacted Cpl HernandezBarreiro's acting Platoon Commander and asked for their assistance in reaching out to the Marine to ensure he was okay and was not planning anything.

d. First Sergeant (1stSgt) Alvarez, the Det 1, Landing Support Company 1stSgt, called back Capt Norena and informed her that they had contacted the Marine and that he stated he was okay and was not planning to do anything directed at Ms. Negrón.

e. On 15 February, 2021, Capt Norena visited PR to visit all of her candidates located on the island, to include Cpl HernandezBarreiro. She began talking with him to ensure he was okay and he began to breakdown and cry. He told Capt Norena that he was stressed and having issues with his ex-girlfriend and that he was concerned about her pressing charges against him and how that would impact his Marine Corps Career. He further told Capt Norena that he didn't do anything wrong. Capt Norena was traveling with a Navy Chaplain and directed the Marine to him to further discuss his issues. Cpl HernandezBarreiro and the Chaplain talked for over an hour and he seemed to be feeling better after the conversation.

f. Additionally, during the 15 February visit that he was working with an Uniformed Victim Advocate (UVA) in New Orleans. He did not go into specifics about the incident, but stated that he attempted to go through his command UVA but was referred to another UVA due to a conflict of interest between the local command UVA and the Marine's ex-girlfriend who worked together for Toys 4 Tots and were friendly.

g. A couple of weeks prior to being contacted by Ms. Negrón (Capt Norena could not remember the exact date), Capt Norena checked in with Cpl HernandezBarreiro as part of a regular check-up with all of her candidates. Cpl HernandezBarreiro asked her that if he were to pursue civilian legal actions against someone else would delay his commissioning. Capt Norena explained that it depends on the extent of the complaint, but that since he was not scheduled to commission until May 2022, there likely would not be an issue. Cpl HernandezBarreiro did not discuss any further.

h. Capt Norena last interacted with Cpl HernandezBarreiro on 12 March, 2021. During their phone conversation he stated to her that he was doing okay, but that he submitted a complaint to his local command but they did not do anything. He again did not go into any specifics. Capt Norena noted that he was not very open and did not readily provide details during the duration of the time she worked with him.

Complaint Description

On approximately August of 2019 in Florida and July of 2020 in Puerto Rico, my ex-girlfriend, Glimary Negron, civilian, sexually assaulted me. On January 1st she left Puerto Rico and went to Florida, we broke up, but still kept talking, and I kept e-mails and text messages from her where she admits to sexually assaulting me. On January 21 I, CPL Hernandez Barreiro, Jean C. filed a restricted report in order to receive emotional and psychological support caused by the psychological and sexual abuse from my ex-girlfriend. I reported it to Sgt Castro, he heard me out and helped me understand the process, however, he felt he could not manage my case since we work closely and it would be best if my UVA was not him. My ex-girlfriend then started contacting my family members, friends, and co-workers at my unit saying that I was going to harm myself, harm her, and she'll send me to jail, while still being in Puerto Rico and her in Florida. Then, on February 15 I decided to make my report unrestricted in order to receive more support as well as an investigation regarding the assault. I according to the Victim Reporting Form, once the report is open, ncsi should begin an investigation and then hand it to local police if it's not within their jurisdiction. On February 16 I spoke to my 1st Sgt and my CO to explain the situation where this individual is intentionally doing things to damage my career, on this day, Janiffer Duhon also spoke with my Inspector & Instructor to clarify the situation. During this time, no Military Criminal Investigation Organization was not notified and my report was not properly handled. On March 8th I was called by 1st Sgt Alvarez and was told to come to the unit on the 8th or 9th, I asked him what it was regarding and he said it was to "Help" me. After the three hour drive to my unit, I find myself surrounded by my 1st Sgt, CO, and an NCSI Agent. Apparently, my ex girlfriend filed a restraining order in another state, where I was unable to attend or defend myself, was forwarded to my chain of command and I was told to sign the paperwork acknowledging of the articles in the UCMJ that apply to me. This not only implies that my unit did nothing with my unrestricted report, but it also implies that I am the person of interest in an investigation, they assured me it they were not questioning me, however I was told I had no choice but to sign the paperwork. I brought up the initial reports I filed months ago regarding that this individual is targeting my career, and absolutely nothing was done. After signing the first paper, I believe it was a military protective order, I was ordered to hand my rifle cards and any weapon that I personally own - I do not own any firearms. I started getting dizzy, sweating, hyperventilating, and tearing up because now I am in a situation where I asked for help months ago, with evidence that she sexually assaulted me, and nothing was done, the MCIO should have been contacted and forwarded the case to FL but instead I received paperwork affecting my career. After I started hyperventilating, I had to ask what the papers meant multiple times because I was confused, and not thinking straight. After I went outside I noticed I had signed a paper consenting to give my phone to the NCSI agent. I spent the next 18 hours passed out on the office floor, and was found the next morning by SSgt Fredly, an I&I Marine that helped me and called the ambulance, I was unconscious for the first two days, I then spent the next 3 days in the hospital because the people in the office assumed I had left the building even though my belongings were still in the office along with my cell phone. The official diagnosis by a doctor at the hospital was a PTSD from the sexual assault combined with me being looked at like the perpetrator made me lose consciousness in the building. After speaking with my UVA, FAP, and therapist I was advised to make a formal complaint because I feel as if my report was not taken seriously, the person that assaulted me knows my chain of command well and I do not know if that played a role in them not formally requesting an investigation.

Good afternoon,

Regarding the policy and process of reporting within SAPR, the staff is not to notify leadership or make reports to law enforcement of any kind without a signed document stating that a victim wishes to formally make an unrestricted report. For example, if the report is initially Restricted, the SARC or advocate would need to have the victim's signed DD-2910 to convert their case to an Unrestricted Report before notification of any type could be made in order to ensure confidentiality is protected.

When the victim in the referenced case disclosed that the accused was someone with whom he had a long term intimate relationship, the matter was referred to Family Advocacy immediately. Prior to that time, there was no information about the accused. It is against SAPR policy to maintain cases involving victims assaulted by spouses, cohabitants, and intimate partners. Therefore, the case was not converted to an Unrestricted report because it was a FAP case at that point. The victim was advised that the case would be tracked by FAP and they would provide him with services. Mr. Daigle and I both contacted Ms. Jennifer Duhon, FAP Director, and Mr. Daigle conducted a warm hand-off between Ms. Duhon and the Marine victim. Mr. Daigle was also contacted by a FAP Case Manager at Quantico who became involved in the case.

Unfortunately I am unable to speak to reporting requirements or procedures within the FAP Program. I do know that they offer both types of reporting as well but I am not sure if they have similar documents to indicate which type of report a victim requests.

I hope this answers your question but please let me know if you need additional information. Thank you.

SARC Team, good morning.

I need some clarification and assistance on this matter. We have an IG complaint from a Marine claiming to have filed an unrestricted report of sexual assault on 15 February 2021. Neither NCIS nor any O-6 level SAIDA was notified. Captain Griffith cc'd, is investigating the IG complaint.

The attached DD 2910 – unsigned by any UVA or SARC – may not have been received by the SAPR office at all. Alternatively, the SAPR office may have received the unrestricted report and forwarded it to FAP with the expectation that FAP would notify NCIS and the command.

Please provide any information you have on this matter. We need to identify where in the process the mistake was made so we can make sure it is not repeated.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

From: Major Brandon A. Griffith 1032214580/0402 USMC
To: Files

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH MS. GLIMARY
NEGRÓN-MUÑIZ

1. On April 27, 2021, I conducted a telephonic interview with Ms. Glimary Negrón-Muñiz. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz provided the following information:

a. Initially, after the military protection order (MPO) was issued against Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro on March 8, 2021, all unwanted and harassing contact from unknown social media sites, emails, texts, and phone calls ended.

b. On 11 April 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a phone call from an unknown number (352-227-1659). When she answered it, there was no response only silence until the call was ended. Immediately after the phone call ended, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a text message from the same number from a "Psychological Outreach program for spouses". She never requested these services and became suspicious when the text was ended with a "x" which was similar to the previous unwanted contact she received prior to the MPO being issued.

c. On 12 April 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a text message from a different unknown phone number (620-209-5469) which contained a countdown for 110 days which aligns to her birthday. This was again similar to the previous countdown she received in February 2021 referencing the release of sensitive photos of her. Several day later on 15 April 2021, she received another text message from the same number with another countdown adjusted for the three days since the previous message.

d. On 23 April 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a snapchat follow request from an account named "kikid6717" which she did not recognize. The numbers utilized in this account (6717) matches' previous accounts which attempted to contact her.

e. On 25 April 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a text message from an unknown source which consisted of a quote and appeared to be auto generated by an online quote website which she did not subscribe to. She has not subscribed to any daily quote services.

f. On 27 April 2021, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz received a text message from an unknown number (303-731-6722) asking to speak with her later that week.

Subj: INVESTIGATING OFFICER SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW WITH MS. GLIMARY
NEGRÓN MUÑIZ

g. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz did not recognize any of the phone numbers or accounts and believes these were generated by Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro. This is based on the use of a count-down to her birthday that he would know, as well as finishing several of the text messages with an "x". This was used by him previously and signified a "kiss".

h. Ms. Negrón-Muñiz was unaware that she was accused of sexual assault against Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro. While they were dating, he was withdrawn with affection throughout their relationship, to include hand holding, hugging, etc. Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro told her this was due to him being stressed about various things.

i. During their relationship, Ms. Negrón-Muñiz would not initiate sexual intercourse with Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro due to his hesitancy to display affection. She would directly ask prior to intercourse or would wait for him to initiate and allow it to happen.

2. This summary of interview is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

A Case Management Group will track my Unrestricted Report and provide a status report. As a participant in the CATCH Program, I agree to provide the following contact information:

EXCEPTIONS TO RESTRICTED REPORTING

There are exceptions to Restricted Reporting. This means that sometimes circumstances require that your Restricted Report of sexual assault must be disclosed. The following persons or organizations may be told about your sexual assault report for the following reasons:

1. Command officials or law enforcement when you provide written authorization.
2. Command officials or law enforcement to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat. This may be a threat to the health or safety of you or another person. Multiple reports involving the same alleged suspect may also meet this criterion.
3. Disability Evaluation Boards, Medical Evaluation Boards, and participating officials. The report may be disclosed to these parties when it is required for fitness for duty or disability retirement determinations. Disclosure is limited to only that information necessary to make a determination for disability.
4. SARC, SAPR VA or healthcare personnel when required for the direct supervision of victim services.
5. Military or civilian courts when ordered, or if disclosure is required by Federal or state statute. Before disclosing any information, SARCs, SAPR VAs and healthcare personnel will first consult with the servicing legal office. The legal office will determine if any of the above exceptions apply, if there is a duty to disclose the information, and who will make the disclosure when required.

E. The exceptions to Restricted Reporting have been explained to me. ☒ Yes ☐ No

F. OTHER IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS FOR UNRESTRICTED AND RESTRICTED REPORTS (Initial)

JCHB (1) If I do not sign this form, the SARC or SAPR VA will not inform investigators, commanders, or others about my sexual assault.

JCHB (2) I have the right to decline any or all SAPR advocacy services. I may also ask for a different SAPR VA, if one is available.

JCHB (3) I have been advised to keep a signed and dated copy of this form for my records. This form may be used in other matters before other agencies (e.g., Department of Veterans Affairs) or for other lawful purposes. Restricted Reports: By signing this form I am giving consent that for Restricted Reports, when applicable, this form will be stored electronically in DSAID for 50 years. Unrestricted Reports: By signing this form I am giving consent that for Unrestricted Reports, this form will be stored electronically in DSAID for 50 years. For Unrestricted Reports, access to it will be limited to persons with an official need to know.

JCHB (4) I understand that if I experience retaliation from supervisors or peers, I can report to the SARC or SAPR-VA through DD form 2910-2 [if I filed an Unrestricted Report]. I can also report it to SVC/VLCs, my commander, law enforcement, Victim Witness Assistance Program or EO personnel, or the Inspector General.

JCHB (5) I understand that I can also request a defense counsel to advise and assist me in the event that there is evidence that I committed misconduct around the time of the sexual assault report (e.g., underage drinking).

JCHB (6) I was advised I am eligible for Department of Veterans Affairs services related to sexual trauma and information is available at: www.mentalhealth.va.gov/msthome.asp.

2. CHOOSE A REPORTING OPTION (Initial either A. or B.)

A. I elect Unrestricted Reporting. I have decided to report that I am a victim of sexual assault and I understand that my command, law enforcement, and other military authorities will be notified.

JCHB B. I elect Restricted Reporting. I have decided to confidentially report that I am a victim of sexual assault. Law enforcement or other military authorities will NOT be notified unless one of the exceptions applies. I understand the information I provide will NOT start an investigation or be used to hold the alleged offender(s) appropriately accountable. I understand that I can convert to Unrestricted Reporting at any time.

The Fear Hope Brings

to me ▾

Yesterday brought a lot of excitement and then with it later came fear. Fear because hope came and found a place to sit.

Now hope holds an anvil over my heart, it lets me know it's in charge now. Why? Because yesterday's flirtatious call was truly a dream come true, and later the thought settled: this too can fade away. I thought, like you said, that this will be a thing in the beginning and then we'll do it less often.

There is where my fear resides, on signing up for something that will fade away again. That's truly my biggest fear. And yes, our sex life means a lot to me because there was always a part of me that wanted to fully explore and enjoy my hidden sexual fantasies with you, and that part still wants to come out, and yesterday it got a taste of freedom, will it be taken away later? Will it be judged and pushed aside? Will it get boring and be shut down?

Again, it was a dream come true, I want it to happen again and in different variations and also never end. My fear is that it will end, and very quickly, so sue me if you see me trying to hit the brake and prolonging this flirty stage we're in, it's all I've wanted for a long while. For me, I'd stay in this stage for years if I could.

So don't pinch me if I'm dreaming.

All I have to give right now is my hurt, I feel like that's all that's cursing through my veins. It feels infectious, I want it out, and I don't know how to get it out. I feel like I need to get all of the blood out of my body and get a new, clean supply, but when we talk and we mention our hurt, it's just more I pour into myself. This is the best explanation I give to feeling overwhelmed, it's that I feel ready to burst at any moment.

Anything you mention that isn't what I needed or expected ignites my hurt and it transforms into anger. I've never been like this but when I was a child and hurting. I've never had to deal with this but when I yelled at my dad almost a year ago and let my hurt out. I yelled for what felt hours, and I felt such a weight lift off. I'm not saying I want you to sign up for that, I'm trying to not be an asshole and shut you out so much.

Jean, all I feel like we do is throw hurt at each other. It's all we have. No conversation will be safe from our pains, resentments and regrets. It's too much too sudden. Please understand that this is why I don't engage in responding how you want me too, because like past-you would say you had to hold back from saying mean things, I get that now, because it's all my mouth wants to do. It's consuming me to the point of draining me. I don't know how you lived like this, how you woke up and wanted to be happy, it's all too much. Anyone trying to love me right now almost feels foreign, I know now that we have perfectly switched places.

It does ring true what they said, my patience is running thin, and I don't know what will push me over the cliff. I don't want you to be that push that I need, so that's why I ask for space, so that I can give you a solid chance. If I continue holding this hurt and pushing out this way, I'll probably hurt you more than anyone can, and I'm asking you to please understand this.

Today was the first day all this became clear to me, a solid line from point A to point B. I don't know how you'll respond and the anger in me is watching from the back burner to be triggered by anything. It's horrible to live like this. I always felt my energy to be positive, but I know now that I need to make sure I cleanse or the people around me will suffer.

This is why I don't write you letters, this and way worse things run through my head, and they feel like foreign, evil voices. I don't know when they took up a room in my brain, but now I can't go a day without hearing them yell at me. I wouldn't wish this on anyone, and knowing you were here honestly infuriates me. That no one besides me reached out to help you. maybe someone could

I know what I said never felt convincing enough, here comes the nagging girlfriend, dismissed the same way as the nagging mom.

I honestly don't know why my fingers keep typing, knowing you're pissed off right now with my "pin it" comment has you probably trying to find a way to let out your hurt. It makes me wonder if you are turning to find a drink, and then this all becomes a monster that will take both of us down like a nuclear bomb.

I don't think I should keep writing, you'll probably respond how I picture you to. Which isn't fair I

I did this.

You just told me to see my intentions.

That my intentions were to be loved.

But does that matter?

Do I care what my rapists intentions were?

Do I care if he was searching to be loved with a 15 year old?

Do I care about him as a person?

Or, do I hate him for what he did to me?

How he touched me.

How he made me feel.

How he took advantage of me.

Now, I know that was me.

All of those questions, as uncomfortable as they are to hear, now apply to me.

I became what I most hated.

I wasn't able to detect when it happened to you, and I didn't stop myself from doing it to you either.

Jean, I have made my decision. Our relationship is finished and there is no turning back. I would appreciate for you to stop calling, texting, or emailing me because I feel harassed. You are now an officer of one of the most prestigious military branch and your should dedicate to your career and please, let go the past. If you decide to continue stalking and harassing me, I will go through proper channels for a formal complaint through your Commanding Officer. RECORD OF AUTHORIZATION FOR SEARCH

1. At 1215 EST on 8 March 2021, I was approached by Captain Brandon Griffith in his capacity as Command Investigating Officer into alleged misconduct of Corporal Hernandez Barreiro, who having been first duly sworn, advised me that he suspected Corporal Jean C Hernandez Barreiro, Detachment 1, Landing Support Company, Combat Logistics Regiment 45 of Communicating a Threat, Wrongful Distribution of Intimate Images, and Service Discrediting Conduct, and requested permission to seize and search his iPhone 11 cellular phone for electronic communications, social media posts, and digital images used in the commission of the alleged offenses.

2. The reasons given to me for suspecting the above named person were:

- a. Corporal Henandez Barreiro was previously in a romantic relationship with Glimary Negron.
- b. In January 2021 Ms. Negron ended her relationship with Corporal Henandez Barreiro and asked him not to contact her again. The Investigating Officer listened to a recording of this conversation.
- c. On 1 February 2021, Ms. Negron received two emails from Snapchat (attachment 1) which indicated that (1) someone logged into her snapchat account "wannabedavinci" from Mayaguez, PR (while she was located in Ocala, FL), and (2) that the primary email associated to that account was changed from her email, "secretary6901@gmail.com", to an unknown email address "wannabepicassoo@gmail.com". Mayaguez, PR is the town in PR where Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro resides, and during an interview with Ms. Negron, she stated that while she and Cpl Hernandez-Barreiro dated, she shared all of her passwords with him, to include her snapchat account.
- d. On 6 February 2021, Ms. Negron received an Instagram message from Corporal Hernandez-Barreiro (Instagram account named "jankeelol") in which he stated "I am doing a lot of questionable things rn. Hopefully it is not too late and we can make amends". Corporal Hernandez-Barrerio was on a drill status on 6 February 2021 when the message was sent.
- e. The following day on 7 February 2021, Ms. Negron stated her friend, Edmary, received a follow request from an account name "wannabepicassoo", resembling the "wannabepicassoo@gmail.com" email used to alter her Snapchat account information. The "wannabepicassoo" Instagram account featured a sensitive image of Ms. Negron which she had not shared publicly. The "wannabepicassoo" Instagram account is private and neither Ms. Negron nor her friend were able to view posts made by this account or when it was created.
- f. The Investigating Officer found the "wannabepicassoo" Instagram account on 6 Mar 2021 under the same user name. There are currently 28 posts and 2,567 followers. The account is still private and the Investigating Officer is unable to see any post or the account creation date.

3. After carefully weighing the foregoing information, I was of the belief that the crime of Communicating a Threat (Violation of Article 115, UCMJ), Wrongful Distribution of Intimate Images (Violation of Article 92 and 117a, UCMJ), and Service Discrediting Conduct (Violation of Article 134, UCMJ) had been committed, that Corporal Jean C Hernandez Barreiro was the likely perpetrator thereof, that a search of the object or area stated above would probably produce the items stated and that such items were evidence and the instrumentalities of a crime.

4. I have therefore authorized Captain Brandon Griffith, Investigating Officer, Captain Kevin Kelly, Det-1 Landing Support Co. CLR-45, First Sergeant Jaime S. Alvarez, Det-1 Landing Support Co. CLR-45, and Special Agent Julia Loyd, U.S. Army CID to search the place named for the property specified, and if the property be found there, to seize it.

Attorney for Respondent

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR MARION COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case No: 2021- DR 000520 AX

GLIMARY NEGRON MUNIZ,

Petitioner,

And

JEAN C. HERNANDEZ BARREIRO,

Respondent.

MOTION TO VACATE FINAL JUDGEMENT OF INJUNCTION

COMES NOW, Respondent, JEAN C. HERNANDEZ BARREIRO, by and through his undersigned attorney and pursuant to FL. Fam. L. R. 12.610(6) respectfully moves this Honorable Court to Vacate the Final Judgment of Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence without Minor Child(ren), ordered on March 1, 2021, and as grounds therefore states as follows:

LACK OF STANDING

1. The Respondent moves this Honorable Court to vacate the final judgment of injunction against him, and as one of the multiple grounds, argues that this case does not meet the requirements to qualify as a domestic violence case. Domestic violence is defined as any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member. Fla. Stat: § 741.28(2).
2. Family or household member means spouses, former spouses, persons related by blood or marriage, persons who are presently residing together as if a family or who have resided together in the past as if a family, and persons who are parents of a child in common regardless of whether they have been married. With the exception of persons who have a child in common, the family or household members must be currently residing or have in the past resided together in the same single dwelling unit. Fla. Stat: § 741.28(3).

3. In the instant case, the Respondent currently resides on a military base in Puerto Rico and has not been to Florida in a least two years. The Petitioner, however, is a resident of Florida. Because the parties are not family or spouses, do not have a child in common, are not currently residing together, and have never intended to live together in the past, this case does not qualify for a domestic violence injunction. Fla. Stat. § 741.30 (e).
4. Nevertheless, in order for a domestic violence injunction to be granted, the Petitioner must either be the victim of domestic violence as defined in § 741.28 or the Petitioner must have reasonable cause to believe that she is in imminent danger of becoming a victim of domestic violence for a court to issue a final injunction for protection against domestic violence. § 741.30(1)(a)-(6)(a).
5. There has been no showing by the Petitioner that she has been a victim of domestic violence due to the Respondent's actions nor has there been a showing that the Petitioner is in imminent danger of any violence by the Respondent. The Petitioner's only evidence produced to the court consist of messages between the parties. Said evidence was never provided to the Respondent to provide him a basis to formulate his defense. In addition, being that the Respondent currently resides on a military base in Puerto Rico and has not been to Florida in over two years and the Petitioner currently resides in Florida, the distance between the parties makes it impossible for the Petitioner to be in imminent danger of any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense which would result in physical injury or death.

6. In a similar case, the First District Court of Appeal held that the trial court erred in granting a final injunction for protection against domestic violence on the basis of repeated telephone calls made to petitioner, where the calls did not give the petitioner objectively reasonable grounds to fear that she was in imminent danger of violence from the respondent, and there was no evidence of previous physical violence [...] The parties had not lived together for five years. Gustafson v. Mauck, 743 So. 2d 614 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999). Similarly in this case, text messages cannot give the Petitioner an objectively reasonable ground of fear of imminent danger given the extreme distance between the parties, the current travel restrictions in place, and difficulty for the Respondent to leave his military base.
7. Additionally, any claim by the Petitioner that the parties resided together in the past is inaccurate as the Petitioner has only vacationed in Puerto Rico in the past, has never had an intention of relinquishing her domicile of the State of Florida, and has only stayed with the Respondent in Puerto Rico while she was on vacation. In a Second District Court of Appeal case, the court held that the petitioner lacked standing to file a domestic violence action because, although the parties' relationship was romantic in nature with overnight visits, both parties lived in separate residences. Slovenski v. Wright, 849 So. 2d 349 (Fla. 2d DCA 2003).
8. Therefore, this Court should vacate the final injunction against the Respondent for lack of standing.

DUE PROCESS

9. On February 22, 2021, the Respondent was served with an Amended Temporary Injunction for Protection against Domestic Violence without Minor Children.
10. The hearing on the injunction was scheduled for March 1, 2021, exactly one week after the Respondent was served. The Respondent contacted the Court pro se, and requested a telephonic or Zoom hearing given the difficulty of traveling with such short notice from Puerto Rico to Florida. This request was denied.
11. Additionally, the Respondent was never provided with any of the evidence listed on the Petitioner's evidence list, thus, precluding him from formulated a proper defense or even having notice of the evidence that was intended to be used against him.
12. Within the Petitioner's own notice of hearing, filed along with her Acknowledgement of Service, she admits that the Temporary Injunction was issued without prior notice to Respondent. This admission in conjunction with (1) the fact that that the notice of hearing was served on Respondent just seven days prior to the hearing, (2) the fact that Respondent resides in Puerto Rico constitutes this as a short notice, (3) consideration of the current Covid travel restrictions such as 14 day quarantine and requirements for negative covid tests prior to travel, (4) the fact that a Zoom or phone hearing which would have facilitated a reasonable means for the Respondent to appear was denied, and (5) the time needed to make necessary employment accommodations to enable travel render this an unreasonable notice as the Respondent could not have had the time to travel to Florida and have a reasonable time to retain counsel.

13. The failure to provide the Respondent with reasonable notice of the hearing, considering the circumstances, violates the Respondent's due process rights by providing him no adequate opportunity to be heard prior entering the injunction against him.
14. The Third DCA has held that a respondent was denied due process and the opportunity to have counsel when the trial court granted her twenty days to obtain representation, while at the same time required her to proceed pro se at a hearing in which all of the issues that required the assistance of an attorney were to be decided. Sheinheit v. Cuenca, 840 So. 2d 1122 (Fla. 3d DCA 2003).
15. Further, Fla. Fam. Law. R. P. 12.610 states that "If the respondent appears at the hearing or has received reasonable notice of the hearing, the court may hold a hearing on the petition." Because the Respondent was not given reasonable notice of the hearing, given the fact that he lives in Puerto Rico and seven days notice is not reasonably sufficient for the Respondent to make travel plans and secure counsel, the court should have not held a hearing on the petition in order to protect his rights to due process.

LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION

16. Additionally, the court should vacate this final judgment of injunction as it lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent and the Court must have jurisdiction before entering a final judgment of injunction for Protection against Violence.
17. Florida courts may only act if they have personal jurisdiction over the defendant, even in the case of alleged domestic violence. Having family in Florida, visiting Florida on vacation in the past, and sending a spouse and children to visit family in Florida are insufficient contacts to confer personal jurisdiction. Youssef v. Zaitouni, 241 So.3d 901 (Fla. App. 2018).

- 18. Further, the Respondent has no minimal contacts with the State of Florida through the Florida Long Arm Statute §48.193. The closest contact may be argued to be § 48.193(1)(a)(2), however, that section of the Florida Statute states that a person submits to the jurisdiction of this state by “committing a tortious act within this state.” (Emphasis added). This indicates that the acts forming the basis for a domestic violence injunction must be committed in Florida. Being that the Respondent does not reside in Florida and has not been to Florida in over two years, the Respondent does not meet any of the statutory factors which would personally subject him to the jurisdiction of Florida courts.

CHANGE IN CIRCUMSTANCES

- 19. The Court, having been given this new information through the Respondent’s undersigned counsel, is now apprised of an entirely different set of circumstances and thus the scenario underlying the injunction no longer exists and has never existed. Continuation of the injunction would not only not comply with Florida law and violate the Respondent’s constitutional rights, but would serve no valid purpose.

WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing, the Respondent, Jean C. Hernandez Barreiro, by and through his undersigned attorney, moves this Honorable Court to vacate the Final Judgment of Injunction for Protection Against Domestic Violence without Minor Children.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing was sent via email on Thursday, April 29, 2021, to: Erin Brennan, Esq., Community Legal Services of mid-Florida, Inc., Attorney for Petitioner, 1610 SE 36th Avenue, Ocala, FL, 34471-4949 to erinb@clsmf.org and patty@clmf.org.
